

1.1. Jesus Mashiach: Kingdom Heir

Matthew 1:1-25.

To understand God's purpose for humanity and its future, know that all creation and all human history converges and makes sense in the life and rule of a single person, Jesus Mashiach. For, Jesus Mashiach is appointed by God as the Firstborn of all creation (Col. 1:15)—its appointed Head and the one to inherit all that has been made in Heaven and on Earth.

So, to understand Jesus Mashiach and His unfolding mission as it synthesizes then defines the all of human history, it is essential that you first understand the identity of Jesus Mashiach as the Heir of God.

Mashiach is Heir as the Firstborn Son

Jesus Mashiach is above all things the Heir of an eternal Kingdom. He is the Son of Abraham (Matthew 1:1), the Head and Heir of all the sons of Israel. And, born of the tribe of Judah, He is the Heir and Head of all the sons of David (1), inheriting from His father the promised throne and Kingdom to endure forever (2 Samuel 7:16). And, as “Immanuel,” the Son of God raised up according to promise for David by God Himself (Matthew 1:18, 23), He inherits the Kingdom of Heaven.

The generations of Jesus Mashiach

Following the pattern first laid out in Genesis, Jesus is the appointed “Heir,” the Firstborn “Seed” (zera) of all the generations of sons of His family line. So, Jesus Mashiach is revealed here in the Gospel of Matthew as being the Firstborn Son of Abraham’s sons, the Head and Heir of all of David’s sons and their generations (1:1).

Because Jesus was raised up to be the Firstborn of all these “generations” of Abraham’s and David’s sons, He embodies the fulfillment of all God’s promises to Abraham and David and to all their generations. In Jesus Mashiach, all the generations from “Abraham to David” during the days of the avot; from “David to the deportation” during the days of the monarchy and divided kingdom; and from the deportation until the Mashiach's birth during the time of destitution (1:17), all these generations of "sons" find their inheritance and blessing of God only in Jesus Mashiach.

Note that Jesus Mashiach and His "book" record a single "generation" (1:1), for He redeems sons by a new birth to be "as the stars of the heavens" (Gen. 22:17), a single generation of sons to inherit the Son's heavenly and eternal life, so they do not pass on life to future generations of sons after succumbing to death. For, the "generation" of sons of Jesus Mashiach live forever, having received a righteous life that is eternal, for Jesus Mashiach is to them Yahweh Tzedekenu, "the Lord our Righteousness" (Jer. 23:6).

The generation of the Son of God.

Jesus Mashiach is not simply the firstborn Son of David, being raised up by God to be "David their King" (Jer. 30:9). Rather, the Lord God always promised Mashiach to be both the "Son of David" (2 Sam. 7:12) and also "the Son of God” (2 Sam. 7:14), for God Himself says, “I will be a father to Him and He will be a son to me.” Such a divine Sonship-Father relationship is only possible because Jesus Mashiach is given birth of David’s “seed” by God Himself, through the Holy Spirit sent to a virgin (1:18). In this way, God’s Mashiach, was promised to say: “the Lord said to me, “You are my Son, today I have begotten you” (Ps. 2:10). For this reason, Jesus Mashiach is the Son of God because His name is “Immanuel”—“God with us” (1:23).

Importantly, because Jesus Mashiach is Immanuel, the Heir and the Son of God, He is able to share this heavenly life with His “brothers,” who are thus “born again”—that is reborn of a like heavenly life that they might inherit and “see” the “Kingdom of God” (John 3:3). These sons have been “renewed” and “reborn” by the Holy Spirit (Titus 3:5).

Thus, Jesus Mashiach restores his generation of brothers to truly be what we were meant to be all along, the sons of God (Gen. 9:6) whose “generations” belong to and inherit the “heavens and the earth” (Gen. 2:4) along with their Firstborn Heir, Jesus Mashiach.

Family Redemption: Mashiach as the Kinsman-Redemer.

Finally, Jesus is Mashiach, the Firstborn of the sons of His family, not just to be the Heir but also to be the Redeemer of the family. As we have seen repeatedly in the line of David Himself, to be the family's firstborn assigns not only the right of inheritance but also the responsibility of Redemption.

From the very beginning, the Lord God knew that the sons of the “generations” of the “heavens and the earth” would be limited in their flesh but would face heavenly opposition. So, when their implacable enemy, the deceiving “Serpent” deceived them to orphan themselves into death and a spiritual enslavement, God promised Mashiach as the “Seed of the Woman” to be the family’s Redeemer to “crush” the Serpent’s “head” (Gen. 3:15).

Only the family's Firstborn would have this right of redemption as the family's Kinsman-Redeemer. As the family of Noah survived God's flood of judgment and his three sons and their families were poised to repopulate the earth, the Lord God designated the family of his eldest son, Shem, to be the family of redemption to create a spiritual dwelling for earth's families to return to God's blessing (Gen. 9:26-27). So, it would be the house of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob as the Lord's "Firstborn Son" (Ex. 4:22) from which Mashiach, the "Seed" would be raised up in whom "all the nations of the earth" would be "blessed" (Gen. 22:18). Thus, the "Seed" of David would be raised up by God as the Kinsman-Redeemer of first his own house, the house of Israel, and then all the houses of the earth, for only David's Seed had the right of redemption to be "disciplined" for "iniquity" (2 Sam. 7:14) in order to make "atonement" and thus bring an "everlasting righteousness" (Dan. 9:24) to all the families of the earth.

So, the Lord God by the Holy Spirit raised up as this “Seed” to Redeem His people this “Jesus” as the one who would “save His people from their sins” (Matt. 1:21). Only Jesus as the appointed Kinsman-Redeemer of Israel and all the nations of the Earth had the right to redeem the “sins” of His people (21) and to be their righteousness as Yahweh Tzedekenu—“the Lord our righteousness,” the Branch Mashiach raised up for David (Jer. 23:5-6). Neither Israel through its Torah-observance nor the families of the earth, through their ignorant and rebellious false religions, had the right nor the ability to save themselves of their own sin, for “all” sinned (Rom. 3:23) and all were in “darkness” and in the “shadow of death” (tsalmavet) and unable to atone for themselves (Is. 64:6; Ps. 14:1-3).

Only Jesus Mashiach, born as the “Son of God”—“Immanuel” and the “Son of David”—“Jesus” has the right to “save His people of their sins.” No one else can crush the Serpent’s Head, the power he wields to enslave the human family through the subjugating rule of “sin” (Eph. 2:1-3). No earth-born human can pay the “ransom” for another’s life (Ps. 49:7) except the Son of God, who lives eternally as Elohim (Jer. 30:9) and whose “soul” is sufficient to “make an offering for guilt” (Is. 53:10). Though Elohim lives and enthroned forever (Ps. 45:6), the One who is both “the Mighty God” (Is. 9:6) and the Son born to David (Is. 9:6-7) can be “disciplined” for iniquity (2 Sam. 7:14) and “pierced” for our “transgressions” (Is. 53:5), dying to pay the penalty for our transgressions only to be “raised up” to Save His people as their Kinsman-Redeemer on the Day of His appearing as the “One they have pierced” (Zech. 12:10).

Thus, only this “Seed of David” (2 Sam. 7:12), raised up as “Jesus,” the Son of God (Matt. 1:18, 21), is the appointed Kinsman-Redeemer to build a Household for David (2 Sam. 7:11) and God (13) which establishes the throne (13) of Mashiach’s Kingdom forever 16.

1.2. Understanding Jesus Mashiach and His Generations:

a. Matthew 1:1-17: Firstborn of Abraham and David.

The book of the genealogy (literally: “book of the generation”) of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham (Matthew 1:1).

So all the generations from Abraham to David were fourteen generations, and from David to the deportation to Babylon fourteen generations, and from the deportation to Babylon to the Christ fourteen generations. (Matthew 1:17).

God’s story begins with the promise to the “generations” of sons to inherit the “heavens and the earth” of regaining their lost inheritance through their Mashiach, their Firstborn, the “Seed” (zera) of Woman to one day crush the “head” of their enemy, the Serpent (Gen. 3:15).

So, Jesus is raised up as this long-promised “Mashiach” (Matthew 1:21), being “the Son of Abraham”—that is, the Firstborn of Abraham's family, and "the Son of David"—that is, the designated Kinsman-Redeemer whom God promised to be disciplined for the "iniquity" of His people (2 Sam. 7:14) that He alone might "save His people of their sins" (Matt. 1:21).

Thus, as God's appointed Mashiach, Jesus is the rightful Head and Heir of all the generations of "sons" of both Abraham and David (Matt. 1:17). Yet, He is not simply an earthly heir. As also the "Son of God"—"Immanuel"—God-with-us, Jesus is also raised up by God to be "the Lord their God" as promised through Jeremiah (Jer. 30:9). So, those whom He redeems become the "sons" of His single "generation" (Mt. 1:1), for they are freed from the endless cycle of death/ birth to be reborn eternally as the "sons of God" (John 1:12-13) that they may see and establish the "Kingdom of God" (John 3:3; 2 Sam. 7:16).

If you are of the generations of Abraham and David, take hold of the birthright that is yours in your Firstborn and Heir, Jesus Mashiach. Letting Him alone be your Yahweh Tzedekenu gives you a heavenly birth as "Sons of the Most High” and members of the House of Elohim (Ps. 82:6).

b. 18-22: Jesus is your Kinsman-Redeemer to “save” you of your sins.

She will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins.” (Matthew 1:21).

If you are a son of Abraham, a Jew, you know the name “Yeshua”—that is, Jesus. It was only this man Jesus whom the Lord God raised up from the virgin “Mary” to be your long-awaited Mashiach, the “Seed” of Abraham (Gen. 22:18), the “Seed” of David (2 Sam. 7:12).

For, only “Seed” raised up by the Lord God as was Perez and Obed before Him, raised up according to the right of redemption—geullah (Ruth 4:10) and also the duty of kinship – yibbum (Gen. 38:8), could this Seed, Jesus, be the Son of two fathers.

Indeed, Jesus is fully “the Son of David” in the same way that Perez was fully the Son of Judah. God raised up “Seed” coming from David’s own “body” (2 Sam. 7:12) as He promised, preserving David’s own “tears” in His “bottle” (Ps. 56:8), tears which provided the (genetic) bodily material needed to pair with Mary’s material to “conceive” Jesus as fully human (Matt. 1:18). Yet, Jesus was not only the Son of David but also the “Son” of God (2 Sam. 7:14), for by the Holy Spirit, God says to Mashiach: “I am your Father, today I have begotten you” (Ps. 2:7). Thus, your Mashiach is both “a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief” (Is. 53:3) as well as the “Son” whose anger terrifies the nations (Ps. 12).

c. 23-25: Jesus is “Immanuel”—God with us.
Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. (Is. 7:14).

Because Mary was betrothed to Joseph, she was a virgin of the house of David. So, the Lord God by the Holy Spirit raised up Jesus from a “virgin”—not just a betullah—an untouched young woman, but an almah—a virtuous woman like Rachel who had no relations with men before she gave birth to David’s Seed, Jesus Mashiach. If she was not virtuous, she would not be virginal. But, Mary was a virgin who maintained her virtue.

Thus, by the Spirit of God, Jesus was “begotten” of God as one who is fully the “Son of God.”

This is not to say that Mashiach had the start of His life as the Son of God at that moment. Rather, Mashiach existed as Elohim from the beginning of Creation. For, this “child” born to Mary was the eternal one called “Everlasting Father” and “Mighty God” (Is. 9:6).

As Elohim, Mashiach obeyed the “Father” as the “Prince of Peace”—so, when God, Elohim, commanded as the Father: “Let there be a firmament” (Gen. 1:6), then God, Elohim, obeyed as the Son: “So God made the firmament” (Gen. 1:7).

In this way, God as the Father, is pleased to “anoint” God as the Mashiach and Heir, to sit on His eternal throne (Psalm 45:6-7).

Thus, Jesus is “raised up” by the Lord God to be both “the Lord their God” and “David their King” by the right of geullah and the duty of yibbum (Jer. 30:9).

1.3. Messianic Context: Understanding Our Original Inheritance.

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.¹⁶ For by ^[f] him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him.¹⁷ And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together.¹⁸ And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent.¹⁹ For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell,²⁰ and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

The Story of Mashiach precedes and takes precedence over all other stories. For you to understand your place with the Lord God, you must understand first that the Lord God's highest priority is to honor His Son. For, God, the "Everlasting Father," has forever and without limit loved God, the "Prince of Peace" (Is. 9:6). Appointing this Mashiach the Firstborn Son of the "heavens and the earth" (Gen. 2:4), He created our family line of Adam and Eve—the human lineage—to be the "sons" of which Mashiach would be the "firstborn son" of "many brothers" (Rom. 8:29), saying: "I will tell of your name to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will praise you" (Ps. 22:22).

Would you like to acquire your original inheritance of "the heavens and the earth" (Gen. 2:4), taking your place in the Household of God as a "Son of the Most High"? (Ps. 82:6). Then, come to Jesus Mashiach for the Redemption of your sins!

He brings you near, to join the Household of God as a "son" and "heir" of all things in the "heavens and the earth" (Gen. 2:4), inheriting the "Kingdom of God" now and "Earth" in the coming rule of Jesus Mashiach (Matt. 5:3-5).

1.2. Prepared for Lord and His Kingdom Way. Matthew 3:1-17

“Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.” For this is he who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah when he said, “The voice of one crying in the wilderness: ‘Prepare the way of the Lord; make his paths straight.’”(Mt. 3:2-3).

Once, we lived in an earthly paradise, a garden that was heaven-on-earth. But, our first parents chose a world of rebellion and chaos by sinning against God to live orphaned from Him. So, our world became a land of spiritual “darkness” in the “shadow of death” (Is. 9:2). Worse, all of our generations have known only this darkness, as our fleshly lives clung to the human deception of Self-Rule, hungering for sin because we have abandoned God’s “fountain of living waters” for our own “broken cisterns” that are ever-dried of any trace of spiritual life (Jer. 2:13). Even our own attempts to return to God through our human-religion—sometimes even building our human philosophies around the very Word of God—as has Torah-observant Judaism. Even these attempts have never secured for us the spiritual life which Adam and Eve lost at the beginning.

So, as people accustomed only to this world of spiritual darkness and death, as people comfortable living in spirit-starved flesh to cling to Self-Rule and reject the Lordship of God, we are unready for the Lord or His Kingdom life.

So, God through His messengers and servants by His Word commands us, “Repent, for the Kingdom of God is at hand!” (Matt. 3:2).

Do not think of repentance as a mere religious adjustment. To trade one set of man-made, religious acts of piety for other habits. No, think of repentance as the drowning man finding grabbing hold of the ladder and deciding to live, pulling himself out of the water into a world full of air.

To transfer from this dark and dying world into the new life with the Lord Jesus Mashiaich in His Kingdom of Heaven, you must make the whole-hearted choice to finally live and not give in to the enveloping death.

If you choose to “live” in the Kingdom of Heaven with Jesus Mashiach as your Lord, consider the life-decisions you will need to make.

1. Repent: Choose to live by abandoning your fleshly rebellion in this dark world.

In the flesh, you live in Self-honor as your own god, clinging to the right to Self-Rule as your own Lord. But, this fleshly life fades and is soon swallowed in eternal death, forever separated from. So, to “repent” is to ready your life to live anew in the Kingdom Family of God—abandoning the wild and feral ways of spiritual starvation in the world. Instead, repenting of and abandoning your Godless life to know live in humble subjection before your Lord God and His Mashiach.

Abandon trying to save yourself in this world, for you have neither the spiritual ability nor the heavenly right to secure life for yourself. Instead, give up and trust in Jesus

Mashiach as your Redeemer and Lord to restore life to you in His family.

You were once outside of God's Kingdom, orphaned from the Lord God and His Family. But, Jesus Mashiach alone is your Kinsman-Redeemer to bring you home to God again. Trust Him alone to secure for you forgiveness and a new spiritual life born-anew by the Holy Spirit.

1.2. Understanding Jesus Mashiach and His Generations:

a. Matthew 1:1-17: Preparing to Live with Lord in His Kingdom.

“Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.” (Matt. 3:2)

Centuries before the Lord God would raise up Jesus as His Mashiach, He promised His Son to send a messenger before Him to “prepare the way of the Lord” and to “make His paths straight” (Matt. 3:3). So, the Lord God sent out John the Baptist to prepare a people not just for life in the Kingdom of God, but to live new lives with the Kingdom’s Lord, Jesus Mashiach. For, “all flesh is grass, and all its beauty is like the flower of the field” that fades and withers (Is. 40:6-7)—that is, all people living in the “flesh” and accustomed to this world’s passing beauty are incapable of living in the flesh with the eternal Lord.

So, John the Baptist prepared a people to walk with the Lord Mashiach by first calling them to an entirely new life, a life pictured by the act of Baptism—the portrayal of death and rebirth.

In the waters of “baptism,” the old life under the dark waters of fleshly sin and worldly bondage is completely abandoned for the new life of spiritual birth into the family and Kingdom of God! Baptism is the perfect picture of this new life, for there is nothing more starkly contrasting than being choked by the dark and deadly waters and breathing pure, life-giving oxygen! Repentance, then, is not simply making a few life adjustments—it is life itself, the choice to abandon certain death for a freeing life.

But, if you want to live in the free and life-giving newness of God’s Kingdom and Family, then, you must be prepared to live in subjection to the Kingdom’s Lord, Jesus Mashiach.

In your old life underwater, your flesh was dead to God and cut off from the saving “way of the Lord” (3:3). Like an addict who freely seeks his own destruction, you freely sinned in rebellion against the Lord and His Way.

Now, God calls you to “repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand” (3:2).

b. 7-12. Reborn into New Life.

“I baptize you with water for repentance, but he who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.” (Matt. 3:11)

God promises you a “new life” as portrayed by the act of baptism, but know that this new life of the Kingdom is not simply a change of thinking, nor even a change of action or lifestyle. The baptism into Jesus Mashiach and His Kingdom is a literal and real rebirth by the Holy Spirit into the Family and Kingdom of God. In the same way that God is not confined to this material earth and its fleshly life, so God’s Kingdom and the Lordship of Jesus Mashiach is similarly unconstrained and boundless.

Honestly, this radically new life is made available to all who repent and turn to the Lord Jesus Mashiach for life, but many settle for a barely different life. So, John the Baptist announces that this new life has two components. First, you must “repent” (11) for new life. Repentance starts with your own mind, for you must be fully convinced that the fleshly life of sin and rebellion is truly spiritual death—cutting you off from the Lord God’s refreshing new life and subjecting you to the cruel enslavement of this world and Satan’s dark power.

If you truly abandon this old life of fleshly death, then Jesus Mashiach has the power to give you a truly new life by the Holy Spirit’s rebirth with fire!

For, Jesus Mashiach is destined to multiply “sons” for Abraham like the stars of heaven, a heavenly host to belong to the Lord God as His holy people (Gen. 22:17) who know Him (Jer. 31:34) as the “sons of God” (Gen. 6:2) who share in His holy life (Jer. 2:13).

Thus, the “new life” offered by Jesus Mashiach in His baptism is not simply an earthly change—offering the sons of Adam or the sons of Abraham the same earthly lives of flesh which they have always shared. Rather, Jesus Mashiach gives His people “new life” as spiritually reborn sons in the heavenly Kingdom of God. Not approaching God from afar as subservient subjects merely keeping His Law, but as the very sons of the Kingdom whose family resemblance is marked by the spiritual life of the Kingdom, their hearts beating with the same Holy Spirit timed to the very heart of their Lord, Jesus Mashiach.

c. 13-17: Trusting in the Spirit-Anointed Mashiach.

The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me to bring good news to the poor; he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound (Is. 61:1)

And when Jesus was baptized, immediately he went up from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming to rest on him; ¹⁷ and behold, a voice from heaven said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." (Matt. 3:16-17).

The good news of God is not simply a new thought, teaching, or religious insight. Rather, God proclaims to you a Gospel of New Life in the full power and promise of His Kingdom. For, the Gospel is the arrival of His very Son, Jesus Mashiach, whom He anoints by the Spirit of God.

Unlike all merely teachers who came before Him, Jesus Mashiach is anointed with the Lord God's very spiritual life and power by the Holy Spirit. Remember, Jesus was raised up as the fully human "Son of David." In the flesh, he suffers like all of us in the weakness and limitations of his own flesh. Yet, the Lord God's anointing gives Jesus Mashiach the power of life itself by anointing Him with the Holy Spirit.

So, come to this Jesus Mashiach. Not simply as a human teacher. Furnished with earthly insights and clever aphorisms. Nor is Jesus simply a religious master, a Baal Shem Tov who has gathered a following by his exemplary piety. No, Jesus is anointed Mashiach with the heavenly power to "save His people of their sins!" This Jesus Mashiach is worthy of your full faith, as you entrust to Him your entire life for its salvation and redemption. Only a Mashiach who is anointed as Lord has the power of God's salvation!

Notice first that you can trust in the Lord Jesus Mashiach because He dedicates His entire life for your redemption. On earth, Jesus comes to John "to be baptized" by him not for repentance or the forgiveness of sins—for notice that He enters the water with no sins to confess (3:14). But, He enters the waters to die to his old life when He was not your Mashiach, when he lived in the flesh for entirely human purposes. And, Jesus Mashiach is worthy of your trust because He has the Lord's power to save you from your sins. But, rising from the waters of baptism, He has the entire heavens opened before Him as the "Spirit" embodying the Lord's fullness rests on Him. The Lord is anointed to bring you the Kingdom's new life in its fullness—to enrich you with new life, to bind your broken heart, and to free you of this world's slavery (Is. 61:1).

Finally, you can trust the Lord Jesus Mashiach to give you new life because He has the full approval of God His Father, who attests, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased” (3:17). The Father sends His Son, Jesus Mashiach, as the rightful Redeemer of His family, the only One entitled to take away the death-producing sins of His people. For, Jesus Mashiach is the Son of God, the Firstborn of many “brothers” who will bear the earthly likeness of Abraham or David, but the spiritual righteousness of God Himself as Father. For, once Mashiach “atones for the iniquity” of His people He can them restore them with a perfect righteousness belonging only to God (Dan. 9:24), for only in Mashiach can His people truly become righteous. Truly, Jesus Mashiach is Yahweh Tzedekenu, the Lord our righteousness. For, “For our sake (God) made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God” (2 Cor. 5:21). So, hear the words of God and see the witness of the Spirit to believe in Jesus as God’s appointed Mashiach, the Lord of the Kingdom sent to redeem you and bring you home to God!

1.2. Messianic Mission: Understanding God's Purpose for your Redemption.

When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring (Seed) after you, who shall come from your body, and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever (2 Sam. 7:12-13).

“Behold, the days are coming, declares the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. ‘In his days Judah will be saved, and Israel will dwell securely. And this is the name by which he will be called: ‘The Lord is our righteousness.’ (Jer. 23:5-6)

From the very beginning, the Lord God intended to appoint His Son as Mashiach, the Firstborn among many brothers. So, our family line of Adam was even called “the sons of God” (Gen. 6:2) amidst the sea of humanity because it was to be the line from which Mashiach would be “raised up as Seed” to multiply sons as the “stars of heaven” (Gen. 22:17) to be redeemed as a spiritual house for David (2 Sam. 7:11) and God (13).

Thus, the mission of Mashiach has always been a family rescue to secure a heavenly righteousness for sons to take their place in God’s heavenly Kingdom and Family. It was never, as Israel imagined throughout its history, merely to perpetuate the earthly line of Abraham and then David through generations of sons who would be mere children of “flesh,” for “all flesh is grass” that “fades” and “withers” (6-7). Instead, the “way of the Lord” (Is. 40:3) called for “flesh” to be prepared to “see” the revealed “glory of the Lord” (5).

Instead, Mashiach was raised up as the Seed of Abraham to “multiply” heaven-born sons like the “stars of heaven” (Gen. 22:17) and as the Seed of David to Redeem sons to form a royal house of both David (2 Sam. 7:11) and of God (13) to inherit with Jesus Mashiach the “heavens and the earth” (Gen. 2:4)—that is, the spiritual realm of the Kingdom of God now (Matt. 5:3) and the earth (5) on the Day Jesus Mashiach sets up His eternal “throne” of His “kingdom” (2 Sam. 7:16) in Jerusalem.

Thus, Jesus Mashiach redeems you for an eternal purpose. If you are a Jew, not simply to remain in the flesh as mainly a “son” of Abraham or David. If you are a Gentile, not simply as a fleshly descendant of Adam. For, mere flesh withers and fades.

Rather, the Lord God calls you to draw near to Him in the Kingdom of God—not in the anonymity of a stranger, but in kinship as a Son. For, Jesus Mashiach, your Firstborn Heir, has redeemed you to be reborn by the Holy Spirit (Matt. 3:10) into the family and kingdom of God. Having the privilege of establishing the “throne” of Mashiach’s eternal “kingdom” forever (2 Sam. 7:16).

1.3. Kingdom Ministry of Jesus Mashiach. Matthew 4:1-25

And they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they loved not their lives even unto death (Rev. 12:11)

the people dwelling in darkness have seen a great light, and for those dwelling in the region and shadow of death, on them a light has dawned.” From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.” (Matt. 4:16-17)

When Jesus is raised up as Mashiach in this world, he is like Moses stepping foot on the dirt of Egypt as His people are still in bondage to a foreign power. But, His future family members await rescue from a far deadlier and more deeply insidious oppressor than Pharoah. Those to be rescued into the Kingdom of God, the future family of the Lord God, live in a spiritual “darkness” and have lived only in the “shadow of death” (Matt. 4:16). Like the sons of Israel hungering for the “leeks and onions”

(Num. 11:5) of Egypt, the people are captive to their fleshly hunger for the sinful and dead things of the world. So, the Kingdom ministry of Jesus Mashiach is first to bring people out of the darkness and into the light of the Kingdom of God's new life! Having been rescued by Jesus Mashiach, Paul exults: "He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son" (Col. 1:13).

In the Kingdom mission to deliver a people out of the kingdom of darkness and into the Kingdom of God, Jesus Mashiach overcome three enslaving forces of darkness which keep people ensnared through sin's addiction. The ruler of the darkness, "the devil," entices the flesh with the world and its desires and Godless ways. So, Jesus Mashiach first overcomes the devil and his temptations himself, that His people may follow in His victory.

Immediately after Jesus is anointed Mashiach, the Spirit leads him into the wilderness to be "tempted"—that is, He is tested to prove that He is truly prepared to resist and then plunder the kingdom of darkness. So, the devil mainly attacks the integrity of Jesus as “the Son of God” (4:3). If the devil can defile the Kingdom’s new life, adulterating life by the Spirit with an unhealthy dependence on the flesh, then he has a chance to defile and destroy the Kingdom from within. But, the true battle of the kingdoms begins for each person from within, as the Spirit and the flesh, enticed by Satan and the world, struggle for supremacy. Will the old life and the flesh drag the disciple earthward, or will the new life of the Spirit raise them heavenward into the Father’s presence?

Jesus Mashiach affirms three truths of Kingdom Life which render the flesh and its desires for sin irrelevant.

1. Life-giving Word of God (4:4). For the children of the Kingdom, true life is found only in the Spirit in the new reality of the Kingdom. The earthly life must be redeemed, as its possessions and priorities are sacrificed to the Lord God for His purposes and will. For this reason, the devil tempts Jesus to make this fleshly life the focus of His life, especially in this time of prolonged hunger and deprivation. To put His spiritual ability at the service of the flesh, to “command stones to become loaves of bread” (Matt. 4:3) is to testify that true life and the kingdom treasures of God are at the service of the flesh and its desires, which is tantamount to vile idolatry and immorality. Such spiritual unfaithfulness is the hallmark of fleshly religion, which the false prophet Balaam foisted upon an unsuspecting Israel (Rev. 2:14). Instead, the Kingdom of God offers true spiritual food to fuel its true life—the Word of God (Matt. 4:4). Thus, as a son of the Kingdom, you are called to live and thrive in the Word of God alone. Let the Word, rather than any other worldly means of satisfying your fleshly desires, be the only food by which your spiritual life is fed, as the Holy Spirit cultivates your soul’s growth!

2. Indisputable Will of Father (4:7). The original rebellion of the flesh is to suppose that it can usurp God's place of Lordship, to be "like God" in its ability to rule its life and determine for itself "good" and "evil" apart from God (Gen. 3:4). So, Satan appeals to this innate fleshly desire to act as its own Self-Ruler, imposing its own will upon God to exalt itself. This "test" would force God to serve the flesh and its desires in the world, even using the promises in the Word of God to advance the flesh.

But, Jesus Mashiach understands that His sonship in the Kingdom of God makes Him subject to the indisputable Will of the Father, under whose Word he places His own will and needs. While God may indeed command angels to protect the Son of God, He has not commanded the Son to act presumptuously, so Jesus stays put, safe under the Father's will.

3. Unchangeable Worship of Lord God alone (4:10). Finally, Satan diabolically offers to help Jesus accomplish the Kingdom's purpose of a world ruled by Jesus Mashiach for the glory of God. And, Jesus could accomplish this purpose without sacrifice, working with Satan to receive back rulership over the world, if only He would “worship” and give honor to the devil.

On the surface, this temptation seems too unlikely to be a threat. Who would choose to worship Satan outright? However, the choice to worship, that is, to honor Satan, is made when one simply relies on the flesh—whether it is its human ability, its Self-promoting ways, or its worldly means of power and wealth—to achieve even the good purposes of the Kingdom!

In the last days, the battle between the Kingdoms will be open and direct, so it is imperative for you to completely abandon the flesh and its Self-empowered efforts to rely entirely on the service of God’s holy servants, as demonstrated by Jesus Mashiach here:

Serving by the Spirit's Power:

- Stop listening to the devil's lie that it is possible to serve one's Selfish Flesh and the Lord's Kingdom at the same time. (4:10).
- Subject your Self to worship God as your only Lord (10; Rom. 12:1);
- Sacrifice your fleshly Self completely to the Lord Jesus Mashiach for its redemption by His cross (Gal. 5:24)
- Surrender to the Spirit's lead, words, and power to accomplish the Kingdom's work (Gal. 5:16; 2 Tim. 1:7).

Only by first overcoming the flesh's allure to serve both the world and the kingdom, to rely on both human flesh and the heavenly Spirit, can you truly advance the Kingdom of God. Learn from the sad and steady decline of the Church, which ended with the terminal, worldly church which had shut Jesus out of its religious life (Rev. 3:20). Rather, fight the Kingdom warfare with weapons of the Spirit (Eph. 6:10-20; 2 Corin. 10:3-6). Then, you will go forth like your Lord Mashiach in light.

Once Jesus Mashiach is proven by testing to be the rightful Redeemer of Israel, having obeyed the Father and renounced Satan and the world, He now launches the Kingdom mission in Galilee, fulfilling the words of Isaiah about the land of “Zebulun and Naphtali” (Matt. 3:13).

At the outset, it is important to see the Kingdom of God as a territory where the realms of heaven and earth are combined. Thus, the Kingdom of God does not take hold of actual geography, at this point. Rather, the Kingdom of God is established everywhere that the Kingdom’s Mashiach brings the light of His presence—starting in the lives of His disciples. For, as the servants of Mashiach obey the Word of His command, the King of the Kingdom rules as Lord over human hearts.

So, the people of the world, starting in the territory of Galilee, are “dwelling in darkness” because they are cut off from the light and life of God’s heavenly life. For these helpless ones, sitting in the “shadow of death” (4:16), only one Kingdom effect matters—that they see the “great light” of Jesus Mashiach himself. In other words, there is only one source of spiritual life in the Kingdom of God. These dying ones blinded in the darkness of their flesh must encounter the Living Mashiach Himself, seeing in His “great light” the heavenly life which has to this point eluded them.

Neither religious activity, fleshly wisdom and the doctrines of men, no matter how popular they are, nor even the emotional stirrings of hearts to truth, matter unless they convey the “light” of Jesus Mashiach’s eternal life. Thus, the most direct way to bring the “light” of the Lord Mashiach’s life-giving presence is through direct personal connection. For, Jesus Mashiach and His servants proclaim to those who hear, “Repent for the kingdom of heaven is at hand” (4:17).

Since the Kingdom of God spreads best as the light of a flame is passed from person-to-person in direct encounters, as the person and power of Jesus Mashiach is experienced as the “great light” warms and brightens the surrounding darkness. Then, it is not fleshly means of human mass-marketing or technological amplification which are the best carriers of the Kingdom’s light. Instead, the “light” of the Kingdom’s life-giving Lord is best seen in the brightened lives of His disciples --newly made alive by the Holy Spirit’s rebirth of regeneration and flame (Matt. 3:11). These newly birthed “sons of light” (Eph. 5:8) are now the “light of the world” (5:14) to personally reveal Jesus Mashiach to those whom they meet. Interestingly, Jesus calls His first disciples to become “fishers of men” (4:19), suggesting that the Kingdom is meant to extend in networks of personal relationship, like the castings of nets into the waiting sea.

Finally, the Kingdom extends as the sons of the Kingdom testify and reveal their life-giving Lord to those they meet, but their words are not simply spoken in fleshly wishfulness. Rather, the testimony of these disciples Has Kingdom power

- Power to Heal: (4:23). As the disciples proclaim Jesus Mashiach and His Kingdom, they also pray for the Lord to reveal His healing power to their hearers.
- Power over Demonic opposition: (24). The disciples simply bring people to Jesus, who heals them by relieving them of the demons oppressing them.
- Proclaim the Kingdom fearlessly by the Spirit. (10:20). When proclaiming the Kingdom to hostile crowds, the disciples do not bear the responsibility of choosing the most suitable words—rather, the “Spirit” of their “Father” speaks through them.
- Purified by the Lord’s Redemption. (Rev. 12:11). In the end, the disciples are even protected from their own fleshly failings, for they rely not on their own righteousness but on the Lamb’s redemption by His “blood.”
- Personal Testimony of Mashiach’s power: (12:11). Furthermore, by attesting to the life-giving power of their Lord Mashiach, these disciples present to people the proof of their own lives which prove the words of Jesus Mashiach.

- Painful Self-sacrifice. (11). Finally, these servants of Jesus proclaim the Kingdom and testify of His reality in their lives through painful Self-Sacrifice, giving up all that they have to endure all things for the Lord's sake.

1.3. Understanding Kingdom Ministry of Jesus Mashiach. Matt. 4:1-25

a. Matt. 4:1-11. Overcoming Satanic Temptations.

To “repent” is to change one’s mind regarding your life. The fleshly view of life which all Kingdom outsiders embrace is that their sins are mere understandable mistakes. However, the message of God’s servants proclaims the Word of God, which states that humanity’s fallen flesh is innately in rebellion against God, claiming a prideful Self-righteousness obtained by its own human ability and efforts, so bypassing the Mashiach's rightful responsibility to redeem His family of their fleshly rebellion and sin, which has doomed all to the inescapable condition of spiritual death and enslavement to the Serpent's spiritual power, a tyranny far more implacable and irresistible than Pharoah's mere earthly armies.

So, to repent is to abandon as futile any hope to save oneself. For, the fleshly condition of spiritual death -in-sin is a permanent helplessness which no human work can undo, in the same way that no act of the hand can reach into the spiritual reality to do or undo what has been accomplished.

Thus, the “kingdom of God” is the reason to repent, to abandon the fleshly Self-justification and righteousness which keeps people out of the Kingdom of God and far-flung from the spiritual life and reward which it offers. The Kingdom of God is a spiritual reality, and the Kingdom Reality must never be subject to the corrupting control of the flesh.

Lordship of Jesus Mashiach
Rules
Word of Command

Earthly Life
Obey Word of God- as Saint Sacrifice Life: Seek Kingdom

Repent: Old Life in Flesh:
Crucify Flesh and Desires

Kingdom of God
New Life of Worship by the Holy Spirit's rebirth Surrender to Spirit's Lead

b. 4:12-17. Proclaiming the Great Light of Mashiach and His Kingdom.

Viewed through fleshly eyes, sin is a mere mistake, a misstep. But, viewed through the spiritual lens of the Word of God, the terrifying nature of sin and humanity's hopeless enslavement is clear. For, the people who walk in the "flesh"—that is, in this current world of Godlessness, a place of spiritual "darkness" and deadly separation from God in the "shadow of death." Only when we see the terrible results of sin, its "darkness" and its deadness to God in the "shadow of death" (4:16) can we really appreciate the singularly life-giving "light" of Jesus Mashiach, bringing truly eternal life to those who are darkened and dead in their sins.

Thus, the call of Jesus Mashiach to "Repent for the Kingdom of heaven is at hand" (4:17) is the heavenly call to life—to find full restoration in a New Life of a reborn Son of God experiencing and serving in the spiritual reality of Jesus Mashiach and His Lordship while also living sacrificially on earth.

c. 4:18-25. Servants Testify of Jesus Mashiach in their Network of Relations.

Follow Me: the Lord Mashiach calls His servants/ disciples to “follow me”—to respond personally to His call to enter a Lord- servant relationship. Thus, every disciple is directly responsible to the Lord Jesus Mashiach himself. This personal devotion is never to be replaced by a devotion to man, a fleshly devotion to people, groups, or fleshly purposes.

In the prior age, devotion to the Lord was inexorably replaced with personal service to human purposes, teachings, and institutions. As a result, the clear voice of the Lord’s command, the pure nourishment of His teachings, were mingled and diluted with worldly voices. For, the pure devotion to the Lord is a total sacrifice to His Lordship. But, this fear of the Lord, the servant’s honest response to the Almighty Power of the Lord, becomes diminished with fear and honor is spread throughout the social realm, as individual men make a name and take honor for themselves. Thus, the Churches took the inevitable path from devoted to distracted. Consider the scathing rebuke Jesus leveled at his dear disciple Peter when this man gave in to his fleshly impulse to be Self-preserving upon bearing of the Cross and its sacrifice: But he turned and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance to me. For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of man.” (Matt. 16:23).

1.3. Kingdom Ministry: Understanding Jesus Mashiach’s Work on Earth.

When the fleshly mind considers the sinful separation keeping God and man apart, it grasps for ways of solving this problem of sin, not grasping the human inability to do anything to reverse the judgment and wrath it faces.

For, the flesh understands only what comes from its own experiences and shortcomings. According to worldly reasoning, sin is simply a mistake, an error to be corrected with the appeasing structures of human religion. Obviously, no man is perfect, so surely God cannot reasonably set His standard of righteousness as a perfect obedience? Thus, a sincere Torah-observance, or a consistent time to face Mecca and pray must surely be sufficient to appease God's holy expectations. And, the fleshly mind hopes that religious appeasement will allow fleshly Self-Rule to co-exist with the Holy God. Such was the thinking of Korah, who presumed that his choice to offer sacrifices according to his own will equalled the Word of God designating Aaron as the chosen priest. But, as we know, God answered with fire to disabuse such fleshly presumption.

Yet, Israel and the world persist in such fleshly presumption. Israel has persisted in its claim to a righteousness based on its own religious efforts to observe the Torah and to re-define the claims of the Word of God, bypassing the Mashiach's right as Redeemer, raised up to be "Yahweh Tzedekenu" (Jer. 23:6) and clinging only to Tzedekenu, "our righteousness" derived from Jewish piety and observance.

Israel persists in this hope, having been exiled to Babylon and then, having rejected Jesus as its Mashiach, cast out once again from the land to wander the nations in destitution.

Now, in these last days, as the Day of the Lord draws near and Israel's final stand against the encircling nations draws near, Israel still refuses to admit that only the "Pierced One" (Zech. 12:10) who comes in the "name of the Lord" is its only hope. Yet, this Mashiach is the one "pierced for our transgressions" (Is. 53:5) to "atone for (Israel's) iniquity" to bring it an "everlasting righteousness" (Dan. 9:24) as Yahweh Tzedekenu (Jer. 23:6).

Limited by their fleshly understanding, both Israel and the world were blinded to the hopeless condition in a world of "darkness" captive in the "shadow of death" (Is. 9:2). And, though Israel readily grasped its hopeless condition in Egypt, when a mere earthly despot had the power to keep it from worshipping the true God through its "harsh slavery" to break Israel's "spirit" (Ex. 6:9).

Yet, how could Israel then suppose that its fallen flesh, inherited from Adam, enslaved it to a far more insidious slavery—the enslavement not just of body but soul, as its spiritual life with God was not simply broken but utterly dead in its sin (Gen. 2:17).

In this spiritual death in its naked flesh, a bodily life uncovered and stripped of any spiritual life of God, Israel would always recoil from God in fleshly fear, crying out “do not let God speak to us, lest we die” (Ex. 20:19).

Honestly, what good would God’s “Law” do for Israel if the same fallen flesh would cry out in every generation, “do not let God speak to us”? (Ex. 20:19) Thus, Israel’s fallen flesh to both recoil from God and to seek a fleshly Self-righteousness of its own making, was consistent through its generations—in the Judges, where everyone did “what was right in their own eyes” (Jud. 21:25), throughout Saul’s reign, who offered to God a rebellious sacrifice to substitute for His unwillingness to heed God’s Word. Through the Davidic monarchy, the divide Kingdom, and even in Israel’s return to its land, Israel proved that it would seek a Self-salvation in the flesh. Thus, rejecting Jesus as its Mashiach.

Israel persists in its efforts to establish its own Torah-observant Self-righteousness, even though God reserves the “right of redemption” only for His Mashiach, the Firstborn Son of the family. And, still refusing in the flesh to hear the God who “speaks” to them (Ex. 20:19), Israel’s Torah-based “righteousness” is merely a “polluted garment” (Is. 64:6).

To a people “sitting in darkness” and in “the shadow of death,” (Is. 40:2), Jesus Mashiach comes as the “great light” to bring salvation to those dead in the flesh, so that “the glory of the Lord shall be revealed and all flesh shall see it together” (Is. 40:5).

Person-to-person, household-to-household, the servants of Jesus Mashiach have gone out and will continue to go forth as lights of the Mashiach’s New Life, sons of God testifying of the Lordship of Jesus Mashiach and proving that only Jesus Mashiach is worthy to “baptize with the Holy Spirit and fire” (Matt. 3:11).

1.4. Living in Mashiach's Heavenly Kingdom on Earth. Matthew 5:1-48

When Jesus Mashiach gathered disciples into the Kingdom of Heaven, followers who recognized and surrendered to Him as the Lord of God's Heavenly Kingdom on Earth, He instructed them about how the new, Heavenly Life of God now was at work in them even as they continued to live in the flesh on earth. So, he prepared them for the unexpected and often unreasonable realities of this Kingdom Life.

As we have seen repeatedly, the natural inclination of human flesh entices us to settle for half-measures. Imagine Satan tempting Jesus to compromise in this Kingdom Life, seeking to cling to earth's fleshly life and to still gain the Kingdom's benefits while bypassing all of its sacrifice and hardship. The one small cost would be to betray God to worship Satan.

As you consider how this hidden yet spiritual reality of the Kingdom must work itself out in your life on earth, requiring a spiritual humility and an earthly subjection to reject the flesh and consecrate your life in sacrificial worship to the Father, know that the rewards of the Kingdom are yours to be had now! Unless you betray your King to compromise and honor Satan with fleshly living on this earth.

Blessings of the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

“Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth. (Matt. 5:3-5)

The “disciples” of Jesus Mashiach follow Him to obey His Words as their Lord, so they are reborn spiritually into the Kingdom Family of God (John 1:12-13; 3:3). Living as sons of the Kingdom as Mashiach Himself is its Firstborn Son, the disciples experience the Kingdom’s unique paradox of combining the two realms of heaven and earth in Mashiach’s Household. Thus, the disciples of Jesus Mashiach finally share in the holy life the Lord God prepared for His own family in His place of “rest” (Gen. 2:2-3). Now, the disciples of Jesus Mashiach, as God’s sons in His Kingdom, are covered by the “blessings” of God as their birthright.

As sons of the Kingdom, the disciples participate in the Kingdom's mystery as it begins to manifest and grow on this earth:

One day, the Lord Jesus Mashiach will save all of Israel to establish the Kingdom of God on earth, that He might rule on His eternal throne in Jerusalem over all the earth. But, until this Day of the Lord, the Kingdom is a hidden movement that exists and grows as an unseen spiritual life multiplying as the nations are disciplined under the Lordship of Jesus Mashiach. Thus, the disciples of Jesus Mashiach inherit all the Kingdom's spiritual life now, as they live as the sons of their Father under His blessings. As sons, they best experience the kingdom by appraising their spiritual status as impoverished and powerless, children who hungrily receive all the gifts and power given to them from God. This spiritual humility is critical, for it protects them from the fleshly deception that entices them to be Self-important and Self-sufficient in the Kingdom. The besetting temptation for disciples of Jesus Mashiach is to settle and compromise with the world rather than sacrificing their old lives of flesh for the Kingdom's sake. For, once disciples seek to preserve their old, fleshly lives of Self-worth, they constrain the Kingdom's life within man-made, religious structures. Like Saul, they build monuments and legacies of earth, relying on fleshly understanding, power, and ability rather than the Spirit.

Let the new generation of disciples of Jesus Mashiach learn the sobering lesson of the Church-age. By placing human understanding and control as a guiding principle of Church life, the disciples in the Church Age became more and more reliant on the flesh until all that remained were man-made institutions, doctrines, and processes, all rich with tradition and wealth but lacking one thing—the presence of Jesus Mashiach Himself, who was shut out of this “Churchianity” and had to knock as an outsider (Rev. 3:20).

You who are disciples of the Kingdom, never abandon the spiritual reality and wisdom of the Kingdom for mere fleshly gain. For, the day will come when all that you possess on earth will be at-risk or taken—so “store up for yourself treasures in heaven!” (Matt. 6:20). Your true possessions will be spiritual, kept in Mashiach as an inheritance for you. So, hunger and ask for the spiritual life of the Kingdom of God! Seek tirelessly for it, exchanging earthly conveniences and comforts for its lasting treasures. Then, when Jesus Mashiach returns, you will inherit with Him the “earth” in its renewed age of peace!

Righteous Living for those Redeemed by Jesus Mashiach

“Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them.” (Matt. 5:17)

Clearly, the Kingdom of God is rooted in the promises of God’s Word, starting with the Law (Torah) and the Prophets (Neviim). So, Jesus Mashiach instructs His disciples that He Himself is the fulfillment, not the abrogation, of these Tanakh promises. As sons of the Kingdom, they must embrace the entirety of God’s Word, for the Lord God promises: “I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts” (31:33). For, the Law and the Prophets reveal the heart of God, a heart which promises His family a Kinsman-Redeemer, the Firstborn Son and Heir of His Household.

If the Lord God longs for a covenantal people who will embrace His Laws in their hearts and lives, then it is His good purpose to raise up for them a family Redeemer who has the power to fulfill the Law’s perfect righteousness in them.

However, there is a seemingly insurmountable barrier making it impossible for these children of the New Covenant to contain this righteous life in their fallen flesh. The Law is perfect, because it reveals the very righteousness of God—a spiritual life rooted in the eternal nature of the Lord God Himself. But, the children are of fallen flesh. As the apostle Paul laments, “The Law is spiritual, but I am of the flesh, sold under sin” (Rom. 7:14). As the life of Job demonstrates and Israel has shown in all its generations, even the Lord’s servants who draw near to Him in holy faith are inevitably defiled and corrupted by their own flesh and its enslavement to this fallen world of darkness and death (Is. 9:2).

Thus, Jesus Mashiach fulfills the Law in the power of His person:

- Righteous Life multiplied: As the Son of God, Jesus Mashiach is raised up by the Lord God to be both “Yahweh Elochechem” (the Lord their God) and “Yahweh Tzedekenu” (the Lord our Righteousness) (Jer. 23:6 and 30:9). That is, as Yahweh Tzedekenu, Jesus Mashiach embodies the Righteous Life of God which the Law reflects, and He passes this righteous life to the sons whom He rebirths spiritually to multiply as the “stars of heaven” (Gen. 22:17). Sharing His same righteous life, these sons of the Kingdom, are as Righteous as is the Firstborn Son, who is first among His many brothers (Ps. 22:22).

- Ransom Paid for transgression. As the “pierced” Mashiach to save all Israel in the end (Zech. 12:10), Jesus Mashiach was “pierced for our transgression” and “crushed for our iniquities” that we might have “peace” with God (Is. 53:5).

According to the prophetic word which Jesus fulfilled as the family’s Kinsman-Redeemer, Mashiach carried the “iniquity” of His errant family to pay for their sin-debt that they might be delivered into God’s Holy Kingdom! For, Isaiah continues: “Yet it was the will of the Lord to crush him; he has put him to grief; when his soul makes an offering for guilt, he shall see his offspring; he shall prolong his days ; the will of the Lord shall prosper in his hand (Is. 53:10). Having offered up His own “soul” to redeem His people for the Kingdom, this same Mashiach has seen “His offspring”—generations of disciples raised up in righteousness as their sin-debt has been canceled!

- Redemptive Restoration of broken flesh. Finally, Jesus Mashiach fulfills in Himself the blessing of the Law and the righteousness it promises to God’s covenantal children. By the redemptive power of His own Spirit-anointing, Jesus Mashiach not only sanctifies sons for the Kingdom, but He restores their lives broken by their sin-ruined flesh. So, He preaches the life-giving “good news” for their rebirth, “binds up” their broken hearts, and releases them from Satan’s “captivity” (Is. 61:1). Thus, Jesus Mashiach not only fulfills the Law's demand for a "righteous life" but He empowers and restores these sons of the Kingdom to actually live this New Life of righteousness!

Perfected Sons of the Father: Growing in the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth

You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. (Matt. 5:48)

Finally, Jesus Mashiach multiplies disciples as the sons of the Kingdom of Heaven, redeeming them and giving them the righteous life of God Himself, not simply to live in the sinless comforts of Heaven but to perfectly resemble their Heavenly Father by living this righteous life in the hardships and tribulations of this world's darkness and death.

As we have seen with Job, the tests and even failures of this world uncover our broken flesh that it might be uncovered and then sanctified. So, as the sons of the Heavenly Father live impossibly in this fallen world, they share in and become perfected in the Father's righteous life! While the world retaliates in hateful flesh at every offense, the Sons of God "love" their enemies and "bless" those who persecute them to reveal their true Father and to glorify His life-giving grace and righteousness! (43).

1.4. Understanding Heavenly Kingdom Life on Earth in Mashiach. Matt. 5:1-48

a. Matt. 5:1-16. Blessed Kingdom Life in Jesus Mashiach.

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. ² And on the seventh day God finished his work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all his work that he had done. ³ So God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it God rested from all his work that he had done in creation. Gen. 2:1-3

In Jesus Mashiach, the Kingdom of God's New Life restores the original life our human family was meant to enjoy with God in His blessing as our Lord and God. In the Kingdom, the Lord God lives with His family in a shared and precious “holy” life of “grace”—that is, the Lord’s provision of every blessing and gift needed for our lives in the Kingdom, and “peace”—the rest He gives us in Mashiach of complete and unchanging peace and acceptance before Him. In this way, the disciples of Jesus Mashiach live under the Father’s “blessing” in the Kingdom, to live spiritually alive in this dark world that is *deaden*ed to God.

In the Kingdom of God, the servants of Jesus Mashiach experience the blessings of the Kingdom of God in these three key aspects of life:

- Blessings of Birthright as Sons: (3-5). Because Jesus Mashiach is the Firstborn Heir in the Kingdom of God, He multiplies brothers who share in His inheritance as their birthright as the sons of God and the sons of Man. To these sons of God, the “Kingdom of God” in all its spiritual power and rule belongs to them “now” (5:3), but these must approach it as those impoverished—powerless and needy regarding its spiritual life and reality—then they will be given all they need. But, regarding the “earth,” this too will be theirs as a future inheritance when the Lord Mashiach finally establishes His Kingdom rule on earth.

- Blessings of Heavenly Life of God (6-8). As the sons of God, these disciples of Jesus Mashiach inherit also the righteous life of Jesus Mashiach himself, who becomes to them their very source of New Life—that is, the “righteous life” of God Himself that is theirs as a family resemblance, having been created in the “image” and “likeness” of God (Gen. 1:26) to be “conformed to the image of His Son” who is the “Firstborn” among many ‘brothers’ (Rom. 8:29). So, disciples who make this “new life” their priority, to “hunger and thirst” for this “righteous life” in Mashiach (6) will be satisfied in it. Also, living out the Father’s “mercy” and “purity” rewards them with an intimate knowledge of God and His spiritual reality (7-8).

- Blessings of Earthly Testing (9-12).

Finally, the disciples of Jesus Mashiach are given the honor of suffering for the sake of the Lord Mashiach and His Kingdom in the world of fleshly opposition (11) so that their faith in Him might be proven genuine. Suffering for the Kingdom proves that the Kingdom is indeed theirs, for they have valued it with their very lives.

b. 5:17-37. The Lord our Righteousness: Law fulfilled in Jesus Mashiach.

“Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them.” Matt. 5:17

As we have just seen, disciples share the original, “blessed life” in the Family of God under the Kingdom of God, the Lordship of Jesus Mashiach covering the lives of His household. But, this blessed life is only the result of the Mashiach’s long-promised Redemption of His people. For, as Egypt proved, an enslaved people are incapable of living in the worshipful freedom to which the children of God are called to enjoy. This enslavement of sin to this world's dark lord not only “breaks” but actually kills any spiritual life with God (Ex. 6:9), for the “wages of sin is death” (Rom. 6:23) and all humanity was “dead” in their “transgressions and sins” (Eph. 2:1).

So, the Redemption of the Lord Jesus Mashiah “atones for the iniquity” of His people (Dan. 9:24) that the death-penalty of sin might be forever “forgiven” (Jer. 31:34) that they might “know” God as Father, receiving His “everlasting righteousness” (Dan. 9:24) as their New Life to grow in His resemblance as sons (Jer. 23:6, Rom. 8:29). Thus, Jesus Mashiah wins forgiveness from sins and an everlasting righteous life for His people, accomplishing this Redemption on His cross of His sacrifice and the shed blood which seals this new covenant (Eph. 1:7; 1 Cor. 11:25).

Importantly, when the children are given this “righteous life” by the redemption of Jesus Mashiah, He fulfills the Law, which still defines and authorizes the very nature of this righteous life, setting by the Lord’s command the very reality of what is “good” and “evil.”

Thus, Jesus Mashiach “fulfills” the Law’s demands by redeeming and giving His people His very own “righteous life” so that they may live righteous lives

- Completely: (5:19) to keep all the commands of God in “spirit” and “truth” as part of their consecrated living to the Lord (John 4:23-24). For, the Law communicates God heart and purpose for both Jew and Gentile, so His children must please the Lord by doing His will even in the least ways by the Spirit.
- Committed Action: (22). Mashiach’s righteous life is lived out with committed action, as the disciple takes responsibility in heart, words, and deeds, to act in the way which the Lord commands.
- Consecrated Heart: (28). Unlike the hypocrites, who obey the Law as a show of personal piety to establish social position in the religious systems of the flesh, the disciple of Mashiach devotes in sacrificial and loving worship all of his heart to the Lord (28).

c. 5:38-48. Heavenly Love: Sons Perfected.

You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. (Matt. 5:48)

The Redemption of Jesus Mashiach irrevocably changes His disciples by atoning for their “iniquity” so that they might receive the “righteous” life of God as His sons (Dan.9:24; 2 Cor. 5:21; Jer. 23:6), in this way growing in this righteous life as the growth into a family resemblance which is a newborn’s birthright. Thus, the disciples of Jesus Mashiach do not abandon the Law in lawlessness but uphold the Law as it is “written” on their hearts and minds as the New Life of sons living in the Kingdom of their Father (Jer. 31:33). Because these sons of the Kingdom still live in fleshly bodies on this earth, their new, heavenly lives works itself out in their lives in counter-intuitive ways counter to the fleshly conduct of the other worldly people on earth. So, the sons of God do not “resist” when encountering evil opposition (5:39) and suffer humiliation without retaliating. They do “good” to even those who are not kind to them (45).

Living by the Spirit may seem foolish and senseless in this world, but these disciples are living “perfect” lives (48)—not flawless, but perfect in their “sanctification”—they have been brought home to the Father and His life, and they are simply living out this Family Life of the Kingdom which they share with the Father (Heb. 10:14).

1.3. Kingdom Living: Transformative Righteousness in Troubling Earth.

“I baptize you with water for repentance, but he who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire” (Matt. 3:11)

There shall come forth a shoot from the stump of Jesse, and a branch from his roots shall bear fruit. And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord. (Is. 11:1-2)

Your throne, O God, is forever and ever.
The scepter of your kingdom is a scepter of uprightness; you have loved righteousness and hated wickedness. Therefore God, your God, has anointed you (Ps. 45:6-7a)

The glories of Jesus Mashiach and His coming Kingdom are vast. But, at the core of this glorious Kingdom is the heart of this great Kingdom, for it reflects the very life and heart of the Father. The throne of Jesus Mashiach, in fact, His very anointing by God, is grounded on Mashiach “love” of “righteousness” (Ps. 45:6). For, it is this “righteous life” which reflects exactly the perfect and holy life of God Himself.

This Kingdom-worthy righteousness which Jesus Mashiach gives to His disciples as their birthright as Sons of the Father is not merely a legal declaration of justification, as some suppose. Rather, the Kingdom Righteousness is transformative, conveyed in the Holy Spirit's power and "fire" at the disciple's rebirth into the family and Kingdom of God.

Thus, the Spirit of God empowers Jesus Mashiach at His anointing to transform and restore His people in their sin-ruined flesh to live and resemble their Heavenly Father perfectly as His sons. Consider how the Spirit of God cultivates this spiritual life of righteousness in the Sons of the Kingdom, as they live meekly in this world of flesh and sin:

- Spirit of the Lord (Is. 11:2). The Holy Spirit cultivates this righteous life in the disciples of Jesus Mashiach because He brings to them the very "Spirit of the Lord"—the same life shared by the Father and His Son, Mashiach. It is a life subject to Jesus as its "Lord" as well, obeying His Words to be transformed.
- Spirit of Wisdom and Understanding: Not reliant on fleshly understanding, the "righteous life" has a "wisdom" and "understanding" tracing to the heavenly reality, making no sense on earth. Only by the Spirit's work can the disciples of Jesus truly understand the “wisdom” of a righteous life suited for heaven. No flesh can grasp the logic of self-sacrifice; of persecution; and of loss to gain the Kingdom’s reality. But, the Spirit helps disciples live wisely and with the understanding and mind of God Himself.

- Spirit of Counsel and Power: life in the Kingdom of God is not simply doctrines, traditions, or rituals as the fleshly religions of the world would suggest. Rather, the Kingdom radiates with a powerful new life gained by the Spirit! For, the disciples of Jesus must listen to the Spirit’s counsel and leading to depart from the natural inclinations of the flesh to Selfish survival. And, the Spirit not only counsels on how to live God’s righteous life on earth, but it gives the disciple “power” to actually act on the Spirit’s wise direction. This power is not bound by earth but is a spiritual dynamic to overcome all obstacles hindering obedience to the Lord Mashiach.
- Knowledge and Fear of the Lord. Finally, the Spirit calls disciples to walk in righteousness that they may “know” God as their Father and walk in the “Fear of the Lord,” lest they abandon His Lordship for the terrifying powers of this earth.

1.5. Kingdom Living in Righteousness.

Matthew 6:1- 7:28

When Jesus Mashiach now instructs His disciples in living a righteous life in the Kingdom of God, He lays the foundation not only for their personal growth but for the future of His Kingdom's rule and society.

In His teachings, the Lord Jesus recognizes that His people will always face a conflict in their living between the Spirit, which directs the hearts and focus of disciples heavenward to live for the unseen, spiritual realities of the Kingdom. Or, the flesh, which ensnares their acts of righteousness in the agendas and purposes of men, leading them to live and act superficially, as hypocrites, who in the end prove to be Self-serving in their works of Kingdom service.

Thus, disciples in the Kingdom must first live sacrificially in their righteousness, offering what is most precious in life to the Father for His unseen yet knowing approval. Such sacrificial living cultivates a righteousness that takes root in the hidden aspects of life, in the heart and mind.

And, disciples must surrender themselves to the Spirit's leading and power, turning from the fleshly Self-exaltation which seeks power or self-benefitting control over others in the Kingdom. So, Kingdom righteousness must be rooted in a brotherly and familial justice in which every member of the family, including its leaders, do not act out of Self-honoring ambition or interest. Rather, each member of the family cares equally for their own and the other's welfare.

Finally, Kingdom righteousness subjects the servants of the Kingdom to live faithfully with their Lord, obeying His Words and rejecting their fleshly need to be Self-Ruling, seeking their own purposes rather than God's Kingdom purpose.

Such faithfulness protects the integrity of God's Kingdom family, as the followers of Jesus work together to advance the Kingdom rather than their own private principalities.

1.5. Kingdom Living in Righteousness.

Matt. 6:1- 7:48

For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.
(Matt. 10:25)

At the heart of the righteous life which the disciples of Jesus Mashiach have been given is a sacrificial love by which the Father has loved the Son and the Son has Loved the Father from the beginning. By this sacrificial love, the “Father loves the Son and has given all things into his hand” (John 3:35). Likewise, the Son loves the Father and gives Him His full obedience, even laying down His life to do His will (Matt. 26:39).

Thus, for the disciples of Jesus Mashiach to share in this righteous life of God, they must be willing to reject their fleshly urge of Self-protection and preservation, which clings to this earthly life as if it is the only life that matters. So, Jesus Mashiach calls His disciples to lose their lives on this earth in order to gain the Kingdom’s eternal and more glorious life (Matt. 26:39).

So, as the Lord Jesus now instructs on the Righteous Life disciples are to live in the Kingdom of God, this righteous life assumes that they are willing to abandon their fleshly attachments to this earthly life in order to gain the Kingdom, as the “Father rewards” them with its New Life.

a. Sacrificial Righteousness: Offering Gifts and Prayers. Matt. 6:1-34.

Disciples are called to offer their lives as “living sacrifices” to God as their “spiritual service of worship” (Rom. 12:1), and this sacrificial thinking traces back to the Temple practice of presenting one’s gift to God as an offering.

In this way, the disciple should picture himself presenting the aspects of his life, especially the things that are most precious and valuable, as gifts to God for use in His Kingdom.

Offering Acts of Righteousness and Prayers/ Life:

So, “giving to the needy” is an act of “righteousness” (6:1) which can be seen as a gift given to God. Importantly, such sacrificial acts should be for the sake of the “Father” alone, who sees in the Kingdom’s spiritual reality, hidden to earthly and fleshly agendas. The lesson here is that righteous, sacrificial living, should be kept pure, being wholly offered to the Father without seeking any fleshly advantage on earth. Such a pure sacrifice maintains the disciple’s unseen and spiritual relationship with God, for the Father has the freedom not just to see the disciple’s righteousness in action, but also direct the disciples steps to do “righteous deeds” entirely for the Father’s pleasure, without consideration for how others might see or respond to such acts.

Similarly, righteous prayer should also be seen as such a sacrificial act. Set in the unseen and holy place of the Kingdom, the disciple offers his own life with his prayers to God. Consider how Jesus Mashiach how to pray in this sacrificially righteous way: through prayer, the disciple gives:

- The Highest and most Holy place in life to the Father and His “name” (9), relinquishing the flesh’s Self-importance.

- The Heart and Mind's Priority to God's Kingdom and Will. (10), giving up the flesh's Self-Will;
- The Health and Care of one's own life on earth, releasing the flesh's need for Self-Preservation (10).
- Heart Hardened by Sin and Unforgiveness, giving up the fleshly desire to be Self-righteous, entitled, or justified (12).
- Harmful Sin and Lawlessness, forsaking the fleshly need for Self-indulgence.

Offering Food and Self-Care.

Giving up one's necessary food and Self-Care is another way to please the Father, choosing to spend time seeking the Lord rather than caring for oneself. Such a choice proves the value you place on your Father's presence and approval. However, misdirecting such an offering to God to seek fleshly and earthly gain diminishes the value of this sacrifice.

Offering up Treasures and Possessions;

Obviously, the flesh values only the present life, so it accumulates wealth and treasure as a way to control and ensure the comforts of this world. But, Jesus Mashiach challenges His disciples to be disciplined investors—placing their heart’s value and possessions in the lasting realm of the Kingdom. Disciplining your heart to treasure the Lord’s Kingdom will protect it from being ensnared by this world’s momentary glamor.

Offering up Fears and Anxieties:

Finally, the flesh clings to the fears and anxieties of life, because the flesh imagines itself life’s Self-ruler, taking the place of the Father’s providential Lordship. So, to sacrifice these fears of life to the Lord to live by Faith frees the disciple to “seek first the Kingdom and its righteousness” (6:33), denying the flesh of its obsessive need to be Self-controlling.

b. Justice and Righteousness: Under the Judgment of God. Matt. 7:1-14

The Kingdom of God showcases the Lordship and rule of the Mashiach. As the Lord over all things, Mashiach rules in “justice,” for “the Lord sits enthroned forever, he has established his throne for justice” (Ps. 9:7).

Because the Kingdom of God is established in the “righteousness” of God, its dominion is founded on a sacrificial love practice by Mashiach and His people. Unlike the world, in which people in their fleshly fear act with Selfish Self-interest, taking advantage of others for Self-advantage and profit. So, it is not justice but power that rules this fleshly world, where the rulers exercise power to favor themselves over others.

So, Jesus warns against fleshly Self-exalting, which causes brother in the Kingdom to “judge” each other, supplanting the Lord’s place of authority. Jesus warns that such Self-honor is hypocritical, because the judge favors and excuses his own transgressions, being Self-righteous but blind to his own faults. Instead, the Kingdom is a place of justice, where even the Father does not exploit others with a cruel power. Instead, disciples care for both themselves and others.

c. Faithful Righteousness: Loyal to the Lord.
Matt. 7:15-29.

Finally, the righteous life of the Kingdom is evidenced in “faithfulness,” starting with a commitment to be faithful to the Lord Jesus Mashiach by keeping His Word. Unlike Judas, who refused to submit his own Self-interests to the Lord's right to rule, the disciples of the Kingdom are called not only to call on Jesus Mashiach as their "Lord" but to obey Him as His faithful servants (7:22).

Here, true discipleship is seen by its fruit. Many who purport to serve the Lord, performing the works of the Kingdom as a way to establish their own Self-honor, gain worldly recognition for their works of prophecy, demonic cleansing, and works of power (22). However, all these were Self-authorized works, being subject not to the Lord and His words, but willfully acting in Self-guided "lawlessness" (23).

Thus, Kingdom discipleship requires the follower of Jesus Mashiach to first sacrifice their own Self-rule to pledge their faithful service to the Lord by obey His Words (24). Servants who honor the Lord Jesus Mashiach by their faithfulness respond directly to His authority over their lives and discover Mashiach's power to bring the Kingdom in true fruitfulness!

1.5. Kingdom Living: Righteous in Mashiach.

Then Jesus told his disciples, “If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. ²⁵ For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. ²⁶ For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul? Or what shall a man give in return for his soul? (Matt. 10:24-28)

The world models its kingdoms as pyramids, corporate structures that place the powerful and rich at the very top, while the vast majority of its people are controlled and subservient, promoting the Self-interests of the select few.

Alternately, the Kingdom of God is literally a family, a single household whose members, from Mashiach throughout the rest of the household, all share in a common, righteous life. Like a great and fruitful vine, the Kingdom branches out from its single Firstborn and Household Lord, Jesus Mashiach, whose righteous life is passed from Lord to His people in an ever-expanding, branching family tree. In this way, the shared life of the family is evenly spread and nourished by all of its inter-connected members.

This is why the prophet Jeremiah predicts that the Davidic Mashiach will be raised up by God as “a righteous Branch” (Jer. 23:5) to rule and to deal wisely with His own people. As the Lord of the household, Jesus Mashiach is the promise Yahweh Tzedekenu, the Lord our righteousness, ensuring that this shared righteous life of the family is not random and varying in integrity but is consistently “perfect” as the righteousness of the Lord God Himself.

Thus, as the Lord’s people live together in this shared, righteous life, they cultivate Sacrificial Love for the Father, Surrender to the Spirit’s work to undo the Flesh, and Faithfulness to their Lord, Jesus Mashiach. This shared life ensures that this family, rooted in Love, Justice, and Faithfulness, will be suited to rule with the Lord as an everlasting Kingdom covering the earth with Knowing God.

1.6. Proclaiming Jesus Mashiach. Matthew 10:1-42

The Kingdom mission of Jesus as Mashiach is one of Family Rescue. As the Firstborn Son of God's Household, Jesus is the "Seed" promised throughout the history of our family line—the appointed "Son" and "Heir" of heaven and earth (Gen. 2:4) to Redeem our sin-ruined family back home to God.

So, if Mashiach comes to us in our "darkness" and "death" (Is. 9:2) as a "great light" bringing the children of God back home to Himself, then the task for which Mashiach sends out His witnesses is personal as well—they are the family members of Mashiach sent out to call their lost family members back home to God through the redemption of Jesus Mashiach!

In the later days, some fleshly teachers have diminished this Kingdom witness to a merely anonymous exchange of information, conceiving of this great family Heir and Kinsman-Redeemer as a mere tool in the service of humanity's salvation, a good deal stripped of His Lordship and fecklessly "saving" the fleshly to remain in their fleshly rebellion. Such error is the mirror opposite of the fallacy foisted upon the Jewish people, who had faith in their own Self-Justification. In this deception, people are misled by their own Selfish-Justification.

So, in the latter days, the witness of Jesus Mashiach will advance and be renewed by certain watershed events. Dear Reader, consider your role now in the Witness of Jesus Mashiach and do not be dissuaded by these great events which will soon take place (see graphic below).

Consider, then, your witness in these last days, which will culminate all of history as the Lord overthrows our enemy once-for-all:

And I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying,
 “Now the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ have come, for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our God. And they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they loved not their lives even unto death. Revelation 12:10-11.

¹⁴ But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.
 Romans 13:14

May you be strong in the Lord by your Witness!

1.6. Understanding how to Proclaim Jesus Mashiach. Matt. 10:1-42

Let's consider now how the Lord Jesus Mashiach Himself appointed and sent the very first of His witnesses to proclaim His coming and the beckoning Kingdom of Heaven.

Remember that the word “witness” is in Greek the word marturos—martyr—One who is ready to back up with the sacrifice of all he has the words of his testimony about Mashiach and His Kingdom. So, let's consider the Lord's first witnesses and their instruction.

a. Appointed and Sent. Matt. 10:1-6.

These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them, “Go nowhere among the Gentiles and enter no town of the Samaritans, ⁶ but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel (Matt. 10:5-6).

Never think that proclaiming Jesus Mashiach is a random or anonymous activity. The Lord God does not leave the proclamation of His Son, Jesus Mashiach, to mere chance.

Rather, the Lord Mashiach chooses and sends exactly twelve servants to proclaim Him, and He knows each one personally. In this way, the Lord Jesus Mashiach knows and chooses you, appointing you with this sacred commission to make Him known. Jesus Mashiach knows you by name, because proclaiming Jesus is a personal introduction. You are introducing and acquainting your new friend with the Lord whom you have known, followed, and served personally. You have seen and testify to the way He has taken the burden of your sinful old life, how he Has sent His very own Spirit to give you a rebirth into His Kingdom and Family. He Himself has introduced you to your new home, connected you with all of His people, and placed you securely in His Household to know His Father through the Holy Spirit sent to you.

You are not a stranger. So, Jesus Mashiach sends you as His friend and brother to acquaint to Him new friends and brothers.

So, you do not go before Him alone. Neither do you go out ill-equipped. Rather, He sends you with His authority as the blessed Lord and Mashiach from the Father. You enter the enemy-occupied territory, but you enter with “authority over unclean spirits” (10:1). Be sure to pray, then, before you go or even speak. Pray that the unclean opposition defiling your hearers might be cast out, the area cleansed, and the minds of your hearers unclouded to hear the Good News of Jesus Mashiach.

Finally, know to whom the Lord sends you. In the same way that the Lord Jesus Mashiach sent the first twelve to their Jewish brethren first—to the “lost sheep of the house of Israel” (6), so He sends His servants anew to the sheep of the House of Israel, who are still lost in their own Messiah-less Judaism. Grazing among the dead names of their host of powerless rabbis with their dusty words of fleshly suppositions. Go to these straying ones, with the familiar voice and call of their Shepherd. The Lord is calling the sheep home to their Shepherd through you.

b. Proclaiming Presence of Kingdom by the Holy Spirit. Matt. 10:7-22.

When they deliver you over, do not be anxious how you are to speak or what you are to say, for what you are to say will be given to you in that hour. For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you (Matt. 10:19-20).

As you go forth, know that you go to a people who have long-since abandoned any hope of escaping this world's inevitable death and its inescapable loss. They have seen generations perish into the blind darkness, and they know that all the words spoken in their Jewish conversations across their generations have any meaning or power to shine any light of hope for any life beyond death. Deep in their hearts, they know the empty talk of their sages has not direct link to the God whose name they have extolled from afar, neither do these empty words have any power over life nor death.

But you, speak to them as the one made alive by the life-giving words of your Mashiach! This life will be apparent before their eyes, as your words resonate deeply in their souls with the sound of refreshing waters bubbling forth from your “fountain of living waters” that now hydrates your own soul (Jer. 2:13). Having heard the empty echo of the lifeless words of their rabbis, they will know the resonance of their Shepherd Mashiach who speaks to their souls through you. For, you proclaim to them the presence of the “Kingdom of heaven” now within their reach (10:6), as they hear the voice of the “Spirit of your Father” (10:20) speaking now through you. And, though they may protest and throw up obfuscating words of defense, the “Spirit of your Father” will ring true to their ears as the voice of their parent calling a lost child home. For, this is the Kingdom, the dream of a reality they dared not believe to be true, yet now within their grasp.

You must simply say what is “given” to you. Let the Spirit and your Lord Mashiach work in the spiritual reality of the Kingdom to draw the lost sheep home.

c. Representing the Lord Jesus Mashiach.
Matt. 10:23-42.

Your witness of the Lord Mashiach and His coming Kingdom will be hard, for the House of Israel rejected your Lord and it will oppose you too. But, be comforted by these assurances:

- Family Fellowship: You speak not on your own behalf, as an isolated individual. You speak as a member of the Lord's household and in the fellowship of our family's mission, given us by the Father.
- Entrusted Proclamation: You speak not your own words but the precious message which the Lord Jesus Himself has entrusted to you. What you have received "in secret" now proclaim from "housetops" (10:27).
- Fearsome Comforter: Consider the limited power your opponents have to hurt you, being mere people of flesh who can only inflict bodily harm. But, they have no deep or lasting power, over soul or spirit. And, the One who has such fearsome power is the One protecting you! (28).
- Final Vindication: Set your sights on the final day of heavenly judgment, when you will stand before the Father, with the Lord Jesus Mashiach claiming you as His own. On that day, your words testifying of your Lord will commend you before all of heaven that you are His true witness (32).

- Welcomed Home: On that day, your grateful hearers will find their hospitality rewarded. Opening their hearts to you, they will find the Lord. And, finding the Lord, they will be embraced by the Father in our eventual reunion (40).
- Preparing His Coming: How will the world know the veracity of your words? As you faithfully proclaim Jesus Mashiach throughout the towns of Israel, fleeing from one place to speak in another, the Lord Jesus Mashiach will certainly return in saving power. The promise of your proclamation will shift irrevocably into the power of His presence, and your hearers will know (23).

1.6. Proclaiming Jesus Mashiach. Matthew 10:1-42

Dear Brothers, as you see on the chart of the watershed events from which your Witness will proceed in the last days, there will be periods of both opportunity and great danger. Let's walk through what is to come as it pertains to your witness.

Rapture- Birth Pains.

Jews reject Jesus as Mashiach: 33 CE enters Jerusalem- crucifixion.
Fig tree withers (Matt. 21:19)

Rapture:
2033 – 7 yrs ~
2025 or 2026?
Birth Pains (Mt. 24:8)

Day of Lord: Jesus Mashiach saves Israel: 2033 CE
Israel restored after 2 days (2 thousand years) (Hosea 6:2)

During its time on earth, the Church has witnessed of Jesus the Messiah (albeit as best it could), and it planted the Word of God in many hearts. When the Church is taken (Rev. 3:10, 1 Thess. 4:16), this Word planted will bear fruit in a kind of firstfruits of the great harvest to come during the period of Testing. Among the Jews, a Jewish remnant will be reborn in Mashiach and will promptly testify of His coming through the period of “birth pains” until the Day of the Lord when He appears to Israel. Worldwide, there is a first harvest of disciples who will encounter quick persecution and martyrdom before the Day of the Lord (Rev. 6:9), and the Jewish remnant will be tried before the Jewish leadership and persecuted.

Beware:

- Many in apostate churches will fall away at this time.
- Many rumors will circulate of UFO's, and false messiahs will proliferate.
- The quick harvest will soon turn into world-wide persecution, so rush through the open doors before opposition starts.
- The “Birth Pains” will see world-turmoil in this order: antichrist → war/ violence → economic upheaval → pestilence & death → martyrdom → Day of the Lord.

Note:

- Your witness must be a sanctified, Kingdom witness. Lay the good foundation of Jesus as Mashiach in Israel, for soon, “All Israel will be saved.”

- You who are the Remnant: like Paul, seek the Lord in the wilderness and wait for Him to reveal Himself.

Discover Jesus as Mashiach in the Tanakh for yourself! Use the associated Bible Guides, especially the #7 booklets on Torah, Ketuvim, and Neviim. Do not import the shakey foundation of Christian doctrine, which were fleshly systems of philosophy.

- Witness by the Spirit: too much of the Church's witness was fleshly and informational. You must reveal Jesus Mashiach in His glory and redeeming power!

Israel- Tribulation:

You, the Remnant of Israel, the Lord Jesus Mashiach will affirm your witness as He promises in Matt. 10:23 by returning in power to be seen and recognized by all of Israel on the Day of the Lord (Zechariah 12:10). So, be faithful until the End, and your people will be finally restored in a glorious repentance!

If you are there when this happens, the nation will experience a total consecration, as each family and tribe weeps before the Lord God.

Comfort your fellow brethren. Before this happens, I would recommend you go through Series 4 of the Bible Guides covering the Twelfefold Testing of Job and Israel. What Job experienced in a lifetime, your people Israel have experienced in all their generations, from Abraham to the Day of the Lord. These tests, ending with Israel's full and heart-rending repentance at the Lord Jesus Mashiach's revealing, are meant to show Israel the utter and irredeemable corruption of its own flesh—that it might reject its rebellious Self-justification forever.

For, it is Israel, once-and-for-all restored to Jesus as its Mashiach, which will be the Forever

Household of Zion to which the nations will stream.

So, Israel must know Jesus as its Mashiach solidly rooted on its sanctified understand of God's promises in the Tanakh and their fulfillment in the New Covenant writings of the first apostles of Jesus Mashiach.

May you overcome the world's enemy by the blood of the Lamb, and the word of your testimony, as you do not love your own lives even to the point of death.

Shalom!

1.7. Responding to the Kingdom.

Matthew 11:1-30

Are you ready for the Kingdom of God? If you take this question seriously, then allow me a brief review of our shared, human nature. The Bible says that we are people of naked flesh. Originally created to be “living souls” (Gen. 2:7)—hai nefesh in the Hebrew in which Spirit-life covered our bodily experiences. But, our first parents rejected God and His Lordship, so we all died spiritually, so that all that remains is naked flesh—we are people of a purely bodily experience and understanding. Yet, we still remember the life of the “Spirit” and we hunger only for that. Thus, our bodily life, our naked flesh shapes us in these key ways:

- Taking God’s Place- Self-Ruling. (Gen. 3:5). When our first parents heard they could be “like God”—that is, replace God in their own lives to be Self-important and Self-honoring, they jumped at the chance! We want to be in charge of our own lives, to be our own Self-Rulers, so our flesh naturally resists God and see Him as an intruder, though as Creator we owe Him our existence.
- Trusting our own Understanding even over God: Self-knowing. Our first parents not only wanted to take God’s place of leadership, but they wanted to rely on their own “understanding” to decide for themselves what was “good” and “evil,” being guided by human knowledge and morality. So, Eve knew God’s command, but came up with three very good and sensible reasons to sin and do the opposite of what God wanted. Because we want to be Self-knowing, we are free to doubt, alter, and even ignore God’s very words to us (3:2-4).

- Treasuring Life on Earth- Self- Serving/ Preserving. We were made to truly live on the Spirit-life of God Himself, with our bodily life of flesh sustained by this world. However, when our first parents rejected God as their governing Lord, they were orphaned from Him and His life, putting themselves and us in a perpetual state of spiritual starvation. Yet, the flesh is convinced that only this bodily life matters, so Eve chose to sin in order to advance a fleshly life apart from God, thinking the fleshly life without God would be “good and nourishing,” “pleasurable,” and “desirable for wisdom” (Gen. 3:6) but only realized too late that a purely fleshly life is naked—uncovered of the Spiritual Life with God she had previously taken for granted.

Thus, know that we all approach Jesus Mashiach and His Kingdom as fleshly beings. When our flesh becomes greater and richer in this world-without-God, it will fight to resist any disruption or loss, so will be threatened by Jesus and His Kingdom.

But, people reasoning in the flesh only see what they are to lose. The earthly position, support, and control which the flesh gives them in keeping its distance from God and His Lordship. By holding to the flesh, people will reject God as their Lord and all the true spiritual life which their souls have thirsted for all their lives. In fact, to gain God through His Redeemer, Jesus Mashiach, is to gain all things forever. Orphans who scrape out an existence in this earthly life face one certain future—death and the finality of losing all things. Those who come to God through Jesus Mashiach become His sons and heirs in an eternal Family and Kingdom. Their certain future is to gain all that God and His Heir, Jesus Mashiach possess—all things in heaven and earth!

So, as you consider your response to Jesus Mashiach and His Kingdom. Know for certain:

- Resistant Flesh: Your flesh will naturally resist God and His will, especially His desire for you to come to Jesus Mashiach as your “righteousness” as your Yaheweh Tzedekenu, the Lord our righteousness (Jer. 23:6). So, repent of your fleshly resistance. Be willing to surrender to God all that belongs to Him, starting with your life.

- Family Welcome: Know also that your life orphaned and alone is not where you belong. God has always been a shelter for you in His Lordship, but you must humble yourself before Him like a child who has finally found their way home. Yet, in the Father’s house, your wild ways are no longer appropriate. Still, prepare to draw near—not as simply a bystander but now as a dear and beloved son, lost but now found!
- Full and Glorious Life: If you think about it, everything in this earthly life has a limit. And, it is step-by-step being taken from you against your will. For, your earthly life in the flesh is a life destined for death—your enjoyment is brief, like the scant hours feasting on the Titanic before its plunge into darkness. So, why cling to it? In the last days, Satan’s Antichrist will offer you earthly comfort, but only for a few short years—after that, you must face the wrath of God as one belonging to Satan.

Instead, choose the full and endless life for which your soul has been thirsting your whole life! Take this eternal life freely by coming to Jesus Mashiach as your Lord and Redeemer!

1.7. Responding to the Kingdom. Matt. 11:1-30

In the midst of historic events, we are blind to the history being made around us. So, the people of Israel, in their generation, were the first to see with their own eyes the Mashiach—earth’s true Heir and the eternal Son of the Father. Seeing only Jesus, Jewish eyes were blind to the heavenly glory that was hidden from them. So, as the first messengers of Jesus Mashiach proclaim the Kingdom to Israel’s people, their words go largely unheard. Let’s consider the early progress of the Kingdom of God as the Kingdom is preached to Israel.

a. The Ministry of the Mashiach. Matt. 11:1-15.

When Jesus Mashiach finished “instructing” His first messengers, He sent them out to preach while also “teaching” and “preaching” in the cities around the Sea of Galilee. Thus, we see how the Servants of Jesus Mashiach and the Lord Himself bring the Kingdom by working cooperatively together (Matt. 11:1):

- Proclaiming Jesus and His Kingdom: Introductory Testimony and Witness. The disciples proclaimed Jesus by simply announcing His arrival, with the simple goal of introducing people to Jesus. Their introduction was personal, as they also shared their testimony of Mashiach’s reality and work in their lives. And, it was backed by power, as they prayed and the Father answered their prayers with the signs of the Kingdom.
- Revealing Himself and Explaining the Kingdom: Teaching the Word. When Jesus Himself “taught” in the cities, He spoke the same “Word of God” which we use today to reveal Jesus as Mashiach to those coming to Him for salvation. The Word of God not only reveals Jesus by the Spirit's enlightening work, but it also explains our need for Jesus. Again, as we plant the faith of our hearers not on ourselves, nor on religious dogma, or even human teachings or philosophy, but on the Living Word of God.

- Promising New Life in Him and His Kingdom: Preaching the Good News. Jesus Mashiach Himself “preached” in the cities around Galilee, sharing the Father’s “good news,” the promise of New Life in Jesus Mashiach. Here, Jesus Mashiach is unafraid to point people to Himself, saying, “Come to me” (11:28). In this way, Mashiach fulfills His first mission, to “preach good news to the poor” (Is. 61:1).

Thus, through proclamation, preaching, and teaching, the Kingdom of God is proclaimed in the region of Galilee. When John the Baptist starts to question whether Jesus is indeed Israel’s awaited Mashiach, Jesus simply points to the signs of the Kingdom’s advance: works of healing the deaf and blind; cleansing of disease and the overcoming of death. And, most importantly, the “good news” is preached to the poor (11:5).

But, Jesus Mashiach announces the greatest proof of the Kingdom—from the “least” to the “great,” children are being born into the Kingdom of God, making them “greater” than anyone who has preceded them. Now, for the very first time in all of human history, children of the fleshly and spiritual birth are being born into the Kingdom of God, alive with eternal life and freed from inevitable death for the first time ever. They are “greater” because these are the “generations” of man finally to inherit the “heavens” and the “earth” as also the sons of God (Gen. 2:4).

b. The Inevitable Final Judgment. Matt. 11:16-24.

With the proclaimed Kingdom of God comes the certain and fearsome Judgment of God. Ever since the Tree, humanity in the flesh has been convinced of its own “freedom” to rebel and dishonor the Lord God with impunity. In fact, so convincing was this fleshly conversation that was started in the garden and has continued to this present day—do thoroughly delusional, that it has convinced people that their words have a power and weight to change the reality of things. Like naive children believing that their fluty toons or their mournful dirges have any real power to affect the actions of their hearers, the people of this generation convinced themselves of the Kingdom’s irrelevance.

However, Jesus warns that such willful ignorance does not release them from the Self-imposed Judgment by which they have doomed themselves by rejecting Humanity’s rightful Mashiach.

By choosing to reject the Mashiach in the present, the people of Galilee’s cities have set themselves unswervingly on a path leading to the “day of judgment” where their fate will be both unbearable and inescapable (11:24).

c. Entering the Kingdom. Matt. 11:25-30.

Considering the glory and the history-changing importance of the Kingdom, the fleshly expectation would set the highest bar for entrance into his great “Kingdom of Heaven.” As with Earth’s “great ones,” only the most worthy, the most valuable, skilled, and noble of Earth’s families would find their way into the Kingdom of Heaven.

Instead, the Kingdom of Heaven reflects the merciful heart of its Lord, whose “Father” heart welcomes and tenderly rewards the “little children” who come to Him (11:25). For, any father who has welcomed a child into the world knows that the bonds of kinship and family affection are mutually binding between parent and child, having nothing to do with any transaction. Rather, a Father’s only requirement is that the little child recognizes and takes its place in the family. With needy arms stretched up to be held, with a hungry mouth waiting to be fed, the child knows that it needs its Father for life, and that is enough.

In this same way, the only requisite to come to the Lord Mashiach for redemption and rest is the honest recognition that you are “burdened” and “wearied” by this fleshly life (28). Living independent of God, carrying the load of your own safety and salvation, is too much for you. You recognize that you cannot save or redeem yourself, you need the “Lord” who is “gentle and humble in heart” to give you rest in His peaceful Kingdom (29).

Recognizing your need for the Lord Mashiach and His saving power is enough for your redemption. So, come to Him!

1.7. Responding to the Kingdom. Coming Judgment. Matthew 25.

As you decide how you will respond to Jesus Mashiach and His coming Kingdom, know that your choice will have permanent consequences! For, Jesus Mashiach promises a day of reckoning when you stand before the Lord, revealing to all the choices that you have made for your life.

Know that Jesus Mashiach will judge all those who belong to His Kingdom or don't, setting up His throne of judgment in the last days.

Followers of Jesus Mashiach Judged: If you are a follower of Jesus Mashiach, then the life you live now and your actions and choices will show how you really view Jesus Mashiach.

- Sacrificial Honor: if you have been inconvenienced, suffered loss, or sacrifice anything of yours—time, money, or effort, you have shown through your actions that you want to “honor” Jesus to keep the “lamp” of your heart alight (Matt. 25:1).

- Obedient Service: If you have served Him in any way, doing good to the people of Jesus or to outsiders in His name, then your service also shows that you have a heart to obey Him, to do His Will. For, you consider all the things in your life as gifts which you can use to honor Him.

Using these gifts for the Lord's Kingdom.

Now, you may be present during the great time of Testing to come upon the world.

If you are not a follower of Jesus Mashiach, know that you will also face Him in Judgment.

During this time of trouble, you may encounter followers of Jesus in need. If you choose to help them, you will have saved your own eternal life, for you have extended the same kindness to Jesus Himself!

- God-honoring Hospitality: Even in the harshest and most dire of life challenges, even as the world threatens you. If you still regard God and choose to help His people, you will have trusted in Jesus Mashiach Himself, and you will be rewarded.

1.8. Kingdom's Hidden Reality. Matt. 13:1-58

When Jesus Mashiach gathered his newly gathered disciples to Himself, He faced a seemingly insurmountable task. To cultivate servants for the Kingdom of God qualified to rule righteously on earth while serving sacrificially their Father, the Lord God enthroned in heaven. For, the future Kingdom and the responsibility of all Heaven and Earth would be theirs. Yet, how should these heirs of the future kingdom be trained in the necessary qualities of faithfulness, righteousness, and sacrificial endurance?

So, the Lord Jesus Mashiach teaches you, His servants, about the Kingdom using simple parables to teach cosmic truths and realities in simple ways, so that we can all live out the Kingdom realities now through simple action of faithfulness, righteousness, and sacrificial endurance!

So, earth under its current regime of “darkness and death” under the thrall of the enemy (Is. 9:2-6) requires the servants of the Kingdom to obey only the Word of their Lord Mashiach. To pledge their faithfulness to Him by sharing His Word amidst worldly derision, opposition, and suffering. To choose to survive by His righteous life as their very sustenance. And, to offer their lives as pleasing sacrifices to their Father God as their losses in this current world mount in order that they might take hold of the Kingdom's "eternal weight of glory" at the exaltation of their Lord Jesus Mashiach! For, "this light momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison" (2 Cor. 4:17).

So, the Kingdom of God and its weighty glory is invisible in this world, so that only its other-worldly New Life might multiply disciples and shine in this current darkness. But, as the disciples of Jesus Mashiach serve Him by re-gathering the Kingdom's lost children back home to its safe Household, they live together congregationally in the Kingdom, serving together as brothers and sisters laboring in the Family's vineyard for harvest!

And, as we see in Revelation, the Kingdom's glory, their Mashiach, walks among them as Yahweh Tzedekenu, the "Lord our Righteousness" (Jer. 23:6).

So, you who seek to serve the Lord in His Kingdom in these Last Days, be strong and resolute in your service! Know that the hidden realities of the Kingdom—its fruitful growth, its exponential spread, and its emerging relationships of peace and grace—these humble realities are ways you can prove your faithfulness to the Lord Mashiach and worship to our Father God even in this life!

And, the great Lord of our Kingdom, Jesus Mashiach, walks among you as the Son of Man, eyes aflame with the Spirit's fire in which we all share, the Firstborn of our Family to inherit this Resurrection Life we will all join in His Time!

1.8. Understanding Kingdom's Hidden Reality. Matt. 13:1-58

The Kingdom of Heaven does not grow and spread according to this world's timing or wisdom, lest its heavenly reality become simply a matter of the flesh. For, the Kingdom of Heaven reveals the true glory of God and its heavenly life, which redeems and transforms the dead things of this world into holy fruit for the Lord's purposes and pleasure.

In this way, the Kingdom comes first in humility, with its true power and glory hidden so that people may freely choose to draw near to God for redemption. The hidden nature of the Kingdom of God allows for a natural growth and the ingathering of the humble, the spiritually poor and needy, and those who tire of Self-Rule and are ready to surrender to the Lordship of Jesus Mashiach for true rest.

Thus, the Kingdom of Heaven is revealed through its Mashiach in stages. So, the servants of the Kingdom must know how the Kingdom Reality unfolds so that they might not force the Kingdom to advance according to human purposes and the flesh's Self- important agenda. So, consider how the “Kingdom of God” grows and spreads so that you will not be tempted to exchange the Kingdom's power and the Lord Mashiach's spiritual redemption for mere fleshly indications of growth.

As we have seen in the Church age, the natural urge of the flesh is to define growth and progress in ways that are predictably human and Self-serving. So, people replaced the life-changing and flesh-crucifying growth of the Kingdom for mere conformity to human structures and processes. Compliance replaced the spiritual harvest promised in the parables.

So, heed the words of Jesus and seek the growth of a hidden kingdom whose abundant harvest may only come from the soil of sacrifice, loss, and humility—qualities which the flesh scorns and the world sees as failure.

a. True Kingdom Growth: the Word of God.
Matt. 13:1-23.

In the spiritual realm of the Kingdom, true growth is seen simply by the fruit that is produced through a multiplying and active vitality. This reproduction of spiritual life is readily seen in reproduction, as the disciples of Jesus Mashiach go forth and “disciple” the nations (Matt. 28:19). Growth is simply fruitful multiplication.

Likewise, the Kingdom has one way that this spiritual multiplication and growth occurs—through the reception and active growth of the Word of God in receptive lives (13:19). The Word of God, which reveals the holy person of God, is the only container of God’s spiritual life injected into the fleshly dead lives of hearers living in a “dark” and “dead” world (Is. 9:2).

For the Word of God to bear reproducing fruit in the life of the disciple, consider the four conditions of growth:

- Hardened Human Understanding (13:19).
 The flesh naturally relies on “human understanding” and experience, but this reliance on what is already known through human wisdom hardens one’s life to the Word, so that there is no place for the claims of Mashiach to rest. The Word of God is seen as intrusive and foreign, having no place in the reader’s life.

- Resistant Restrictions on Acceptance: (13:20). Similarly, hearers or readers of the Word may have fleshly restrictions already in place, such as religious teachings or doctrines; common-sense experiences; or, cultural values which dictate which areas of life may allow for the Word to affect, if any. Such a restrictive approach to the Word allows only the superficial and emotionally shallow aspects to be retained but to be also easily rejected.
- Competing Concerns for Growth (13:22). The fleshly heart is cluttered with the world’s possessions, thoughts, and desires which also grow to occupy space and devotion in the life of the believer. When these fleshly or worldly desires go unchecked, they overtake and smother the Word’s growth.
- Simple Acceptance by Faith (13:23). But, the Word of God grows freely for those who simply accept it and the Lord it reveals, taking all it has to give by a sacrificial faith, ready to act on what the Lord demands through His Word.

b. Kingdom Harvest. 13:24-43.

Jesus Mashiach describes the Kingdom of God as a field in which good “wheat” was planted but which is being overtaken by the competing counterfeits of “weed.” The point of this parable is that the Lord of the Kingdom commands, “Let both grow together until the harvest” (13:30).

There are several key lessons to learn from this parable, which should prevent fleshly disruptions of the Kingdom of God:

- Unseen Work only Lord Knows: It is the “Son of Man” (37) who is the one responsible for planting the “good seed” while the enemy is responsible for the false seeds. Mere humans cannot distinguish with certainty the difference between good or false “Seed,” so they must let the Lord judge in the end to sort out true from false.

- Certain Final Judgment: Although life on earth will be a mix of the “true” and the “false,” there will be a final judgment that is inescapable. Though those who live falsely may succeed in the earthly world of appearances, the reality of their spiritual life will be fully known and either rewarded or revoked.

c. Kingdom’s Hidden Treasure. 13:44-58.

The Kingdom’s value—that is, its inherent glory and amplitude, is always hidden on earth. In this way, the true glory of the Mashiach Himself, though embodying the holy life and righteous nature of the Lord God Himself, being raised up for us as the “Lord our God” (Jer. 30:9) and the “Lord our righteousness” (Jer. 23:6), did not overwhelm with His glorious power those among whom He lived, being clothed in the humility of the flesh (Phil. 2:6). For, on earth, the Lord’s purpose for Jesus Mashiach was not to luxuriate in magnificence but to humbly serve.

Likewise, the servants of Jesus Mashiach in His Kingdom on Earth must similarly serve in humility this Kingdom in its hidden glory. They must not aspire to experience or even benefit from the Kingdom's glories in this earth, seeking instead to advance the Kingdom through humble and faithful service.

For, though the Kingdom remains a hidden treasure in the current age, it will one day be magnificent in its fruition. Just as Jesus Mashiach—humbled at the cross to save His family through His sacrificial service, now awaits the impending glory and magnificence that is infinitely His. And we His servants, having served with Him in this hidden Kingdom, scraping by with the “little,” will one day enjoy the “all.”

So, satisfy yourself in your humble service to the Lord. Be not discouraged by the limitations, the setbacks, and even the ignominy of the Kingdom. For, these hide the reality of the priceless glory which will one day be yours!

1.8. Hidden Kingdom, Glorious Life in Jesus Mashiach. Revelation 1:4-20.

As Jesus Mashiach instructed through His parables, the reality of the Kingdom of God is a hidden but glorious new life, which is revealed through its remarkable growth like seed bearing an abundant harvest or the smallest speck becoming a large network of shady plants (13:23, 32). This hidden yet glorious dynamic of life traces back to the true power behind this Kingdom life and growth, the Lord Jesus Mashiach Himself.

Let's look then at how Jesus Himself in the book of Revelation describes this remarkable Kingdom dynamic by revealing Himself and the family unity fueling and organizing the Kingdom's growth. Remember the words of Jesus, that this mystery of the Kingdom is really the privilege and right of every "son" of the Kingdom.

If you are outside the Kingdom looking in, the realities of the Kingdom will still remain cloudy for you. For, they tell of a spiritual and future reality reserved for the sons of the Kingdom as their birthright.

The Book of Revelation begins as a direct correspondence from John, the Apostle, to the “seven churches that are in Asia” (Rev. 1:4), but by its words of prophetic (Rev. 1:3) Jesus reveals Himself to the “seven churches” which are the lampstand seen by the prophet Zechariah as the seven lamps of the Church Age (Zech. 4:2). These seven “lamps” represent the seven movements of the Church which testify of Jesus Mashiach during Israel’s season of destitution, having rejected Jesus as its Mashiach. Yet, as Zechariah saw, this testimony of the church is limited—lasting as long as the seven church movements burn bright then fade. Once the witness of the “lamps” finally goes dark, Israel and its “olive tree” will once again God’s only light in a darkened world.

God gives Kingdom Life to His people:

Thus, as Jesus Mashiach reveals the Kingdom’s hidden life to His servants in the Churches, He first reveals how Elohim as the “Everlasting Father,” the “Prince of Peace,” and the “Wonderful Counselor” (Is. 9:6) work together to bring this Kingdom Life to the sons of the Kingdom:

- Life passed on as Grace and Peace: (1:4). First, we see God’s kingdom heart for His people—He sends them His “grace” and “peace.” The redeeming life of the Kingdom first embodies the Father’s heart to be “gracious” to His family, to give them freely and lavishly the good life. And, this life is also known by its fruit. This Kingdom life is rooted in a peace shared by the members of His family, the security and safety of being accepted and at peace.
- Union with the Father: When God the Father reveals Himself, He is revealed as the One how “is”—the eternally existing One. Who “was,” the One who abides from the very “beginning.” And, He is the one “to come” (1:4). The Father’s heart is to one day come to and live among His people as the one to “come” to them.

- Seven Spirits joining Heaven and Earth: Because the children of the Kingdom, in Mashiach, are the “generations” to inherit both the “heavens and the earth” (Gen. 2:4), they are separated from God as far as the heavens are from the earth. So, the Spirit of God brings God and His life near to the children who dwell on earth. In this way, the Spirit brings the heavenly life of God to the earth-dwelling servants of the Lord, for the Spirit anoints Jesus Mashiach with heavenly power, with spiritual “wisdom and understanding,” “counsel and might,” and “knowledge and the fear of the Lord” because He is the “Spirit of the Lord” (Is. 11:2). Likewise, the Spirit presents the lives of God’s people “before the throne” (1:4), as His saints offered to their God prayers, worship, and their very lives.

- Jesus Mashiach, the Faithful Witness:

Finally, Jesus is the Faithful One, sent from God, to secure for us this New Life of the Kingdom. For, Jesus is the Firstborn who resurrects us, the later-born, from the dead into His Kingdom rule over the “kings of the earth” (1:5). Redeeming us by His blood, Jesus gathers us into the Kingdom’s ruling House, sons who serve before the God and Father forever (5).

Embodying this New Life of the Kingdom, Jesus Mashiach is the One to “come with the clouds” to establish the Kingdom of God on earth (7).

Tested Life of the Kingdom—sustained by the Glorious Lord.

As we have seen, this Kingdom Life given to us by the Lord God is glorious—to be called as the sons of God to form the Kingdom’s House to establish the Rule of Jesus Mashiach forever is an indescribable honor. Yet, such a glorious life at the present is hidden by the humbling life of tribulation and the need for “patient endurance” which the family of the Kingdom must endure at the present time (9).

Yet, even in our most powerless and enshackled tribulations, our glorious Lord Jesus, our Redeeming Mashiach, works among us in His Kingdom glory. Banished to a barren island, John saw the glorious Lord Jesus as He walked among His churches—“the Son of Man” walking among His “lampstands,” the Churches. Thus, never think that these earthly tests isolate us from the Kingdom on our little islands of chaos and hardship. Rather, Jesus Mashiach assures us in our hardships that He alone has “the keys of Death and Hades”—that is, He has overpowered this world’s Enslavement to Sin and Death, now giving His glorious life to all whom He wishes (1:18). Do you want to see your Kingdom future? Gaze at the unbearable glory of your Lord, fully emanating the glorious life of the resurrection, and see your future. For, “we shall be like him, because we shall see Him as He is.” (1 Jn. 3:2).

1.9. Sanctified Hearts for Mashiach.

Matt. 15:1-16:28

From that time Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, “Far be it from you, Lord! This shall never happen to you.” But he turned and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance to me. For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of man.” Matt. 16:21-23.

When the Lord Jesus Mashiach shared with His disciples that he would soon “suffer, be killed, and on the third day be raised” (Matt. 16:21), He revealed that His heart was set on the purpose of God and His Kingdom—to redeem for the people of His Kingdom a New Life of resurrection from the dead. Because His heart was fully sacrificed to honor God to be the promised Kinsman-Redeemer, He was fully prepared for the hardships facing Him.

Since the Lord's own heart was sanctified—completely surrendered to the Father to do His will, no matter the cost—this holy heart allowed Jesus to embrace the cross with no thought to serving His own Self-interests. So, the Lord's heart for His Father's Kingdom focused His mind on accepting the need to “suffer, die, and be raised” for the redemption of His people.

However, when Peter rejects the Kingdom's plan for the Mashiach to “suffer, die, and be raised,” he reveals that his heart is fleshly, still embracing the “things of man” (23).

Thus, it is critical for your Kingdom service to the Lord Mashiach as His disciple that you prepare your heart in sanctification to the Lord, that it not have any trace of fleshly Self-preservation. For, as Jesus showed, only a *heart sanctified fully to the Father is capable of embracing God's Kingdom purpose to redeem His people through the cross of Jesus Mashiach. Instead, the fleshly heart will actually oppose the Kingdom, taking the side of Satan and the world to reject the redemption of Jesus Mashiach as Israel's only source of salvation.

1.9. Sanctified Hearts for Mashiach.

Matt. 15:1- 16:28

The fleshly ways of the world will fill your mind with a multitude of ways to advance the Kingdom so that human ability, reasoning, or wisdom will be exalted. All the while, not realizing that there is no spiritual life or power in the flesh, and there never has been any life. The social world of men grows accustomed to a false appearance of life and power, a generation-to-generation inheritance of human know-how which insulates itself further and further from the actual life of God.

So, when Jesus Mashiach sends His disciples into the world, they encounter fleshly hearts entrenched in their lifeless Jewish traditions, clinging to “broken cisterns” and unwilling to even taste the “fountain of living water” presented before them (Jer. 2:13). So, Jesus Mashiach addresses their blindness stemming from their very hearts. For, in the realm of the “heart,” people value and cling to their dry traditions and reject life. So, their only hope is to realize the dangerous hardness of this condition.

a. Distancing Tradition or Hearts of Worship.
15:1-20.

Jesus Mashiach first points out to the Jews that their heart condition can be known by their actions and sentiments toward God. Noting that when compared, their fleshly “tradition” has the more honored and secure place in their hearts, even leading them to “break the commandments of God” for the sake of their traditions (15:3).

As a result, the hearts of the people are “far from me” (8) laments God Himself. What is nearer and closer to them are their fleshly “traditions” and their “teachings” which are mere “doctrines consisting of the commandments of men” (9).

So, you whom the Lord calls as His disciples in the last days, pay heed. In this same way, the hearts of the people of the Church age grew more and more fleshly, as its leadership could not bear the uncontrolled freedom and growth of the Kingdom, a new people ruled by the Spirit and not simply resting in the “Headship” of its Mashiach, the Lord Jesus.

Instead, it looked to its past and formed traditions of honor, venerating similarly fleshly men who made a “name” for themselves yet who showed little fear for the direct “commandments” of God. Reformation leaders who advocated the excising of entire books of the Scriptures which did not support their own protestant doctrines. Reformed leaders who promoted a man-exalting salvation but minimizing the power of the Living Mashiach, investing the Kingdom’s value in its sanctioned teachings and teachers. Many whom voided the warnings of Revelation to prepare His servants for the Last Days.

So, disciples of the Kingdom. Remember that you have one Teacher, the Mashiach. Each man must take up His own sword, the Word of God. Fearing God's commandments as fearing the Lord God Himself. Always note the condition of your heart, whether "distanced by its commitments to men, traditions, and doctrinal commandments" or drawing near to God in heart!

b. Humbly Surrendered Heart. 15:13- 16:12.
Your fleshly nature will naturally venerate the most honored and accomplished among yourselves, but Mashiach reminds you that you are all "brothers" to one another (Matt. 23:10). In the Kingdom, we look not to the "great," lest we begin to think that human ability can compete with the glory of our One Heir, the Mashiach. No, we should focus on the least among us who is fully surrendered to the Lord.

Your model of such a surrendered heart of faith should not come from your "great ones" from among your own brethren, but consider the humility of a powerless outsider, this Canaanite woman, as having a faith that compelled even the Lord Jesus Mashiach, moving Him to change in what He perceived to be not right.

This Canaanite woman in our story understands that she is not of the “house of Israel”—not a “child” but an outsider, a Gentile not deserving of the blessings intended for its rightful heirs. Still, she presses near the “Lord” and awaits anything He may give her (15:26).

Such a humbled supplicant Mashiach sees as having “great faith” (28). But, the Self-assured, “great ones” of this age, secure in their tradition-backed, widely popular “teachings” rooted in the commandments of man yet voiding the very commandments of God—these “great ones” will be lightly regarded in the Kingdom’s reality.

But, consider the deadly alternative when fleshly hearts raise up for themselves honored men, “great ones,” to be their rabbis. Human, tradition-backed teachings arise with the backing of human understanding, communal reputation, and fleshly commands. Such “teachings” is expansive like “leaven” (16:12), but it is airy and without substance. Lacking any spiritual power or the intimacy of the Lord’s own inspiration. Beware fleshly teaching, which leads to Godlessness, for it is:

- Opposes the Lord: (16:1)—fleshly teaching ultimately works at cross-purposes with the Kingdom, drawing the faith of its hearers to a human foundation (1 Cor. 2:4-5). It competes with the Lord for the hearts and power over its hearers.
- Adulterous: (4). Fleshly doctrines and its teachers have their hearts squarely set on this world and the honor and accolades of men, which provide the treasures and rewards it desperately loves.
- Blind to the Kingdom. (3). Because fleshly teaching sets its foundation on earth, aiming to acquire worldly status, riches, and success, it acknowledges but does not actively “seek” the Kingdom, lest its own rule and institutional power be displaced. So, it engages in a willful and selective blindness, accepting the things of the Kingdom insofar as they align with its own worldly agenda. Yet, as Jesus rebuked Peter who sought the purposes of man first, such compromise only opens the door for Satan’s disruption.

c. Cross of Self-Denial fuels Service. 16:13-28.

Thus, disciple, choose now whom you will serve. Whether the Lord Jesus Mashiach and His Kingdom or this earthly world and its passing yet momentarily glorious kingdoms.

Remember, you are entering the Last Days when the time has been carefully marked off. We are no longer in the endless days of the flesh which could act, deluded that a human lifetime was all the time in the world. Now, the world’s time is clearly marked out. Seven years until the Day of the Lord, then another Seven for a time of Testing until the Lord Jesus Mashiach establishes His Kingdom on Earth.

Do not be blinded like Peter, whose heart was enticed by the purposes of man to be blinded to the Kingdom's purpose. So, the Lord's call to your heart as a disciple is:

- Embrace Kingdom Sacrifice: (16:21). Remember, the world and the flesh fear the finality of death. But, we embrace total sacrifice in the Kingdom because the end-of-life is resurrection. For, our Lord suffers opposition, is killed, only to be “raised” on the third day (21).
- Reject a Mindset of Human Purpose (23). The main goal of the flesh is Self-preservation and the prolonging of earthly life, so avoiding risk, sacrifice, or pain. Such risk-averse, sacrifice-avoiding thinking is in opposition to the Kingdom's way. For, such fleshly thinking advances Satan's purposes to keep the earth and its people enthralled by this temporary cycle of life and inevitable death.
- Deny your Self: Discard the thinking into which you were born in the flesh—that you have the right to be Self-Ruled and Self-Important in this world. You are not fit to take Creation's "center" nor can you control life as your own Self-Ruler (24). Instead, Deny your Self, Dethrone your Self-Rule, that your life's true Lord might ascend and be enthroned as your Lord and God, Jesus your Mashiach.

- Take up your Mashiach's Cross. The cross is the complete and holy sacrifice of all you have to your Father for His purposes and will (Rom. 12:1). By the cross, you offer to the Lord God all that you have on earth so that it might be redeemed, and made useful for His Kingdom purposes. (24)
- Follow only your Lord Mashiach: Because it is impossible for you to serve "two masters" at the same time, living sacrificially by His redeeming Cross will win you the freedom to "follow" Jesus Mashiach as your true "Lord" (24).

Spending your “life” in this way on Jesus and His Kingdom saves it eternally. For, you will not make the mistake of preserving your earthly life only to ensnare it in Satan’s trap of life and its inevitable death.

Thus, disciples who live such Kingdom-worthy lives, though seen as the least and most unrecognized and scorned in this fleshly audience of the world, these disregarded ones await the coming Kingdom of their Lord Mashiach. Some of these in the Last Days of Earth will even be given the distinct honor of bypassing death itself to see the “Son of Man coming in His Kingdom”! (28).

1.9. Sanctified Hearts for Mashiach.

Hearts Ready for Kingdom: Matt. 5:2-16.

In order to cultivate hearts ready for the Kingdom and its Heavenly Purposes, Jesus Mashiach teaches His disciples about the characteristic hearts of disciples which the Lord blesses with Kingdom fruit.

1. Humbled Hearts blessed with Inheritance: (Matt. 5:3-5).

Disciples are uniquely called to have hearts oriented toward both heaven—drawing near to God their Father and His enthroned grace and mercy and His Kingdom purposes; and earth---focused on living a life of Kingdom witness to testify of the Lord and His redemption.

Toward the things of heaven, to perceive the spiritual realities of the Kingdom that are unseen and only known by faith, the disciple is to have a heart that is “poor in spirit”—

- Spiritually Powerless: humbly recognizing that the flesh has no power, no access, no claim to spiritual things but is “poor” so must take the position of a supplicant—a needy beggar.

- Impoverished and Needy: Yet, the disciple in his poverty must also recognize His great need, so is eager to gain whatever spiritual blessings of the Kingdom which the Father chooses to give freely. Be needy means to be open and receptive rather than choosy. It is the Lord who gives the Kingdom's gifts and resources freely. The disciple need only receive what is given, unquestioningly.

Such a heart-humility positions the disciple to have free access, and the rights of ownership—to all the Kingdom realities which the Father freely gives as the disciple's rightful inheritance. If you want to see the power, the fruit, and the unseen blessings of the Kingdom spiritual realities, ask and it will be lavishly given to you!

Disciples are rich Kingdom Heirs, being the ones to possess the Kingdom in all its fullness now. Yet, such an honor as Heirs does not mean their hearts are puffed-up with fleshly Self-honor on the earth—demanding that the Heavenly Reality of Sonship translate to immediate treasures now. Quite the opposite. These Heirs of the Kingdom are called to live meekly on the earth, subject to the Father's will that they endure all hardship and loss for the Kingdom now to prove their faithfulness and readiness to claim the earth in the future.

2. Hungry Heart blessed with Satisfying Righteousness (6)

*The New Life of the Kingdom calls for the disciples of Jesus to have hearts hungry for the Righteous New Life given to them by Jesus Mashiach. They are no longer creatures of mere flesh, hungering only for the bread of this world but on every "Word that comes from the mouth of God" (Matt. 4:4) and the righteous life this Word produces in them.*

3. Holy Heart blessed with Nearness of God and His mercy (7-8).

Unlike fleshly hearts, which withdraw from God, fearing the loss of their sinful and Self-serving ways, the Holy Hearts of disciples draw near to God as their Father, presenting to Him all that they are and ready to repent of any sinful or uncleanness before Him. In the purity of His beloved children, these disciples are blessed with the reality of His nearness, “seeing” His true nature and Father’s heart of grace and mercy. Because these sons of the Kingdom know that their Father’s heart is filled with mercy, they endeavor to show mercy akin to their Father, repenting of any unmerciful hardness before their Father.

4. Heavenly Hearts blessed to Share in Suffering of Lord for Kingdom (9-12).

Finally, disciples of Jesus Mashiach present hearts that are transformed by the Lord God’s own heavenly life, being strengthened by His divine grace and peace to have power to endure all opposition on earth. So, disciples bring the “peace” of Mashiach’s Gospel to the rebellious world, inviting people to lay down their fleshly resistance to join the peace and unity of God’s household. And, witnessing of Jesus Mashiach to the world, they suffer persecution, derision, and losses on this earth in order to gain the glorious riches of Mashiach’s coming Kingdom!

Thus, draw near to the Lord God and your Mashiach in heart, that you may be a Kingdom Witness to this dark world, as you shine your New Life in Jesus Mashiach in this dead world.

1.10. Mashiach Revealed and Rejected.

Matt. 21.1-23:15

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your king is coming to you; righteous and having salvation is he, humble and mounted on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey. (Zech. 9:9).

When the people of Israel and Judah were exiled in Babylon, Daniel came before the Lord to intercede for his people, confessing their guilt and asking that He turn from His wrath against their sin. In response to Daniel's prayer, the Lord God reveals to this Godly servant the Lord's plan for Israel from Babylon until its last days.

Following the decree of the Babylonian King to restore Jerusalem, there would be 69 weeks of years until the promised Mashiach would be revealed to Israel and then cut-off. Why would the Mashiach be cut-off and "have nothing"? (Dan. 9:26) In this sacred timeline, the Lord God reveals His purpose for Israel and the people's greatest need. They had been banished to Babylon for their sin, so God would have Mashiach “cut off” to “finish transgression, to put an end to sin, to atone for iniquity” so that an “everlasting righteousness” would be given to His people, saving them from any future wrath (Dan. 9:24). This need for redemption was echoed in the words of the prophet Jeremiah, through whom the Lord promised to “raise up a Righteous Branch” for David who would be called “the Lord our Righteousness” (Jer. 23:5-6). Furthermore, this Mashiach to “atone for iniquity” would be revealed to Israel and Judah as their “Righteous King, humbled and riding a donkey” (Zech. 9:9).

Now, let’s put ourselves in Jerusalem in the year 33 CE. It has been 683 years (69 weeks) since King Artaxerxes has sent out Ezra with the decree not only to repair Jerusalem but to teach its people about the Law of God, bring about a true restoration. And, Jesus enters Jerusalem on a donkey as the crowds welcome Him as “the Son of David.”

Israel has two options before it. First, it can recognize Jesus as its Mashiach. It can believe God's Word, that its greatest need is Redemption, the "atonement for iniquity" to receive a lasting, "everlasting righteousness" (9:24).

Or, Israel can reason that it no longer needs God's Redemption. It may have already attained an "everlasting righteousness" entirely by its own Self-Justifying works of Torah Observance. Because Israel considers itself already righteous, it has no need of Mashiach. Having already attained its full inheritance, the blessing of its Jewish Life and learning, its rich customs and traditions, it has no need for the Firstborn Heir to secure its inheritance. Thus, Israel could choose to reject God's Mashiach as unnecessary.

Of course, Israel chose the path of its own Self-righteousness and Self-redemption. But, let's ask ourselves. Did Israel make the right choice?

- Approved as Righteous: If indeed Israel had achieved a Self-Righteousness, and was approved by God as being blameless and beyond reproach by its impressive religious works: its Temple worship; its Torah-learning and pious observance; and, its rich traditions of festivals, Sabbaths, and customs. Has Israel enjoyed God's full approval and blessing, having rejected Jesus as its Mashiach and claimed a Self-Redemption?

The clear judgment and wrath poured out against Israel in 70 CE, as the Temple was destroyed and the nation scattered among the nations. Even to this day, Ezekiel prophesies that the people have not attained a spiritual life by the Spirit, complaining even in the last days, "Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost" (Ezek. 37:11).

- Illegitimate Inheritance: For Israel to expect to have already obtained God's inheritance without Mashiach shows a complete misunderstanding of Israel's place in God's plan. In Jewish thinking, Israel is always prior, is always primary, from which Mashiach emerges as simply one of her sons.

However, it is for the sake of Mashiach that Israel exists, for Mashiach is "the Son of Man"—the Heir and Firstborn of not just Israel but all of humanity, of all the sons of Abraham.

This Heir is eternally Elohim who is Anointed by Elohim to sit on His eternal throne, ruling forever. It was Elohim, not Israel, who was in the beginning.

Without the Firstborn Son, there are no later-born sons. Without their Head, there is no family. While Israel can be sons of the earthly man, Abraham, without "the Son of God," they can never be the sons of God.

Thus, when Israel rejects Jesus as its Mashiach, it rejects its own future; its inheritance; its status as sons of God; and, its redemption and any hope of a saving righteousness which would spare Israel from God's wrath, judgment, and the desolating genocide which the nations plan for Israel.

1.10. Mashiach Revealed and Rejected.

Matt. 21.1- 23:15

According to the Word of God to Daniel, 483 years were appointed from the time of Artaxerxes and his decree to restore Jerusalem to repentance in 450 BCE and the cutting off of the promised Mashiach would be 483 years. So, in the year 33 CE, Jesus was presented to Israel as its Mashiach, raised up as the Seed of David.

If God's timing so precisely raised up Jesus as Mashiach, why did Israel not recognize His coming? Actually, we will see that many in Israel were both aware of God's promise and recognized Him as the Son of David, but these were the poor and weak, the "children" of the nation.

So, we shall see that the humbled and needy indeed recognized Jesus as the coming Son of David. These witnesses testified against the nation at large and its teachers, who chose not to see Jesus as Mashiach because they were not humbled but proud, too Self-important to share any glory or honor with the Mashiach. For, they were not poor but Self-Righteous, claiming the inheritance of God for themselves based on their own Self-redemption through Torah-observance. What need did these teachers of Israel need of a Mashiach and His redemption, when they were quite content and proud of their own Self-acquired Righteousness?

Thus, we shall see that Israel rejected Jesus as Mashiach in 33 CE not because it was ignorant of God's promise to raise up Seed for David. Nor was it unaware that John the Baptist had anointed Jesus as God's Mashiach. And, neither were they blind to the timing and signs that testified of Jesus Mashiach's rightful claims to Redeem Israel and save its people from their sins. Rather, Israel rejected Jesus as Mashiach because its leaders wanted the Mashiach's inheritance for themselves—achieving a national Torah-observant righteousness, a Judaism which we see even to this day. Rather than submitting to the Lord God' promised Mashiach, whom He had appointed the rightful Heir of His own Household.

But, seeking to bypass the redemption ordained by God and assigned as a birthright to His chosen Mashiach, Jesus, Israel rebelled and tested God to retain fleshly power as the sole rulers of the people.

Perhaps Israel expected the Lord God's purposes to be abandoned in the face of its rebellion. Instead, the Lord God proved the redeeming power and the glory of a new, resurrected life by bringing Gentiles to faith in Jesus Mashiach. As for Israel, He would bring them into a time of great testing and to the brink of national extinction so that it might know that its Self-Redemption was a vain hope. When faced with certain destruction in the Last Days, Israel will abandon its delusional fiction of a legalistic Self-righteousness and will look up, seeing only the face of Jesus, the Mashiach and the nation's Firstborn with the power of God to save.

a. Humbled King anointed and glorified by Children. Matt. 21:1-27.

When Jesus is presented to Israel as its Mashiach, he encounters two very different responses. First, “children” cried out in the Temple, “Hosanna to the Son of David!” (21:15). Jesus would earlier say that the Kingdom of God was for those like them, for these children had everything to gain in the Kingdom of God, willing to give what little they had for its sake.

However, the great teachers and powerful leaders of Israel were “indignant” (14), even offended that the honor they surely viewed as their right was being squandered on this person Jesus. Possessing the esteem and lavish rewards of the powerful religion of Judaism, they had little to gain from a heavenly Kingdom and much to lose—their position, their control, and their right to rule.

Offended by this threat to their religious order, they were not moved when Jesus reminded them that Mashiach was “the Son of Man”—God’s rightful Heir of all “dominion over the works of your hands,” having put “all things under his feet” as the majestic “Lord” (Ps. 8:1, 2, 4-6). Even in the presence of God’s Heir, these great ones of Israel imagined earth’s rightful Heir to be a mere intruder to the religious kingdom they had established in Israel.

Thus, the rulers of Israel adopted a willful ignorance towards Jesus and His arrival as Israel’s rightful Redeemer and King. Tragically, the truth of God was not compelling in itself—in fact, their reasoning showed that “truth” did not matter. What only mattered was the practical realities of retaining power for themselves.

So, when Jesus brought up the baptism of John, by which He had been anointed as the Mashiach of Israel, the leaders dismissed the possibility that this baptism was “from heaven” (26) because Jesus would ask them, “Why then did you not believe him?” (25). That is, if the God of heaven indeed sent John, and God expected Israel to “believe” and “abide” by His choice of His Mashiach, why did they not comply? Obviously, the flesh is unwilling to submit itself even to God, for the original rebellion of man in the garden was to suppose that it could be “like God”—to usurp and replace God on this earth (Gen. 3:5). So, to retain the appearance of Godliness while at the same time rebellious against God to cling to their own fleshly Self-Rule, these leaders chose a willful ignorance—an intentional agnosticism to claim ignorance at the unknowability of Mashiach’s question. When men take such a position of willful unbelief, there is no path left except the one that leads to inevitable judgment. Thus, “unbelief” is an unforgivable sin, for it blasphemes the Spirit's witness of Jesus as Mashiach, making “faith” an impossibility (Mark 3:29).

b. Heir and Firstborn King rejected by willfully blind teachers. Matt. 21:28-46 f

Now, what would motivate any mere human, regardless of his background, to resist the promises and arrival of God's chosen Mashiach? Jesus explains Israel's Self-deluded rebellion with two illustrating parables.

- Honoring Sonship: Flattery or

Contrition. (28). The Kingdom of God is composed of Sons called to do the will of their Heavenly Father. So, who in Israel proves to be better-suited for sonship? The leaders of Israel are like sons who flatter their father to his face, but do not really respect Him enough to do His will. On the other hand, the “tax collectors and prostitutes” (31) who live unquestionably sinful lives have enough regard for their Father to regret their disobedience and repent, eventually obeying the Father's will.

Based on their actions, Israel's leaders reveal that they regard human opinion and disregard the will of God, merely seeking to appease Him to get their way. Such dishonorable sons show their unworthiness for the Kingdom of God.

- Honoring the Heir: Subjection or Stealing His Inheritance. Another aspect of the Kingdom is to honor the familial lines of succession which the Father has ordained. In the parable of the tenants, the Landowner says: “They will respect my son” but the tenants reason: “This is the Heir. Come, let us kill him and have His inheritance” (37-38). By their actions, the leaders of Israel show no familial respect for seniority or birth order, the “respect” which the Father of the Kingdom has ordained for His Son and Heir. Instead, they display a treachery befitting thieving outsiders. In this way, the leaders of Israel reveal that in the corruption of their fleshly hearts, they covet the inheritance and position assigned to God's promised Mashiach (21:38). They want the Kingdom and its Inherited Rule for themselves, establishing a Jewish Hegemony which honors in its Temple the glory of the Jewish people in which God is simply an accessory to their traditions and special genius. It is their customs and the splendor of their Temple worthy of veneration, not the God whose presence sanctifies the Temple.

Thus, Israel and its leaders reject Mashiach not because they do not believe He is the Heir of God but because they wish to usurp His position, to acquire His inheritance by their own virtue and Self-righteous works. But, such treachery shows that they are not worthy of the Kingdom for which they have long plotted.

c. Seed of David Raised up as Lord but dishonored by Hypocrites. Matt. 22:1-23:15.

Through its generations, Israel has formed a fleshly misunderstanding of God's view of Mashiach and his place in the Kingdom of God. In Israel's fevered imaginings, all God's blessings and inheritance is for the sake of Israel, which occupies the place of privilege in the world as the sons of Abraham and the recipients of the Law. In this view that the universe was created for the sake of Israel as God's "firstborn son" among the nations (Ex. 4:22), it views Mashiach as simply an expression of Israel's glory, the avatar embodying the best of Jewish life and learning. Thus, Mashiach is most recently imagined as a wizened scholar, benign and harmless, a frail Shneerson who sits comfortably and unobtrusively in the corner, benignly present but ignored and irrelevant.

However, the parable of the "wedding feast" re-calibrates the place which the Lord God Himself gives Mashiach in His Kingdom. Israel has any inheritance or blessing at all, only because it is given its assigned portion by the Mashiach, the Firstborn and Head of the entire Kingdom family. Israel is “firstborn among the nations” insofar as it is part of the family line of the Mashiach, God’s appointed Firstborn of all creation. For, Mashiach obeyed God as God to create the very atmosphere ensuring life for all of earth’s creatures (Genesis 1:6-7).

Mashiach was God’s Firstborn Son in the beginning, even before Israel was even created.

Thus, the King gives the “wedding feast” for the sole purpose of honoring His “son” (22:2). In this way, the Kingdom’s God-given purpose is to honor the Son of God, Mashiach. Israel, the people called into the Kingdom, are invited not as indispensable personages, but simply as guests invited to join in the Son’s celebration. Whether they come to the feast or not (5) is their choice, but if they choose not to honor the Son, this does not mean that the King reassesses and decides instead to make the guests the center-piece of His celebration, anointing them His new Heirs.

Actually, the King simply finds and invites willing guests who will honor the Son as the King intends. Thus, Israel may choose to reject Jesus as its Mashiach, but then it chooses the hard reality for its descendants in a future unprotected of its destined Lord. Despite Israel's recalcitrance, the Lord God still makes Jesus Mashiach the "cornerstone" (22:42) of His household.

Perhaps the reason why Israel is so willing to diminish Mashiach's place in God's plan is that it see him simply as an earth-born son as it sees itself as well, merely sons of the man Abraham. Such faulty thinking is evident in the belief that Mashiach can be born to anyone in Israel at any time—a notion more akin to Western democracy than Biblical genealogy.

Jesus Mashiach pinpoints this incomplete Jewish understanding of Mashiach's identity when He points out the conundrum of Mashiach's paternity. How can Mashiach be merely "the Son of David," a mere man, if He is also David's "Lord" (Ps. 110:1)? If Solomon was not David's Lord, how can Mashiach outrank Him? Furthermore, Mashiach does not merely outrank David as his Adonai but as Yahweh, for Jer. 30:9 says Mashiach is raised up by God to be both "the Lord (Yahweh) our God (Elohechem)" as well as "David our King."

The Jewish leaders answer Jesus Mashiach's question of the conundrum of Mashiach's paternity when they previously state that according to Jewish Law, a "brother" must "raise up seed for his brother" (22:24) when death threatens to extinguish the line. This act of "raising up Seed" through the act of redemption is what the Lord God Himself promises David when He promises: "v' hakimoti et zeracha"—"I will raise up your Seed" (2 Sam. 7:12).

As these leaders should know, based on Biblical precedent, that when a kinsman assumes the redemptive right to "raise up seed" for the deceased, and this kinsman-redeemer is not a brother but a close relative, as was Judah himself for Er and Boaz was for Mahlon, and the Lord God was for David as His Redeemer (Ps. 19:14), then the Seed which is raised up for the deceased is the “Son” of two fathers—of Judah and Er; of Boaz and Mahlon. And, in the case of the promised Mashiach, the Son of David and the Son of God.

So, Jesus Mashiach is David’s “Lord” as both his Adonai and his Yahweh, because the Lord God had raised up as Seed Jesus, who is both “begotten of God” (Ps. 2:7) and of David from his own body (2 Sam. 7:12).

Thus, Mashiach cannot simply be any random Jew in all the generations of Abraham. Rather, Mashiach is both the earthly kin of the sons of Abraham, but He is also the heavenly Son of God Himself so that the earthly sons of Abraham might also become the heavenly sons of God as their Father, being multiplied like the “stars of the heavens” (Gen. 22:17), becoming literally “sons of the Most High” no longer subjected to fleshly “death” but sharing in the eternal, heavenly life of “Elohim” as “Elohim,” members of God’s family (Ps. 82:6-7).

The withered Fig Tree.

When Zechariah was given a picture of Israel's future with the Lord, He saw an "olive tree" and then a lampstand, flanked by another "olive tree" (Zech. 4:2-3). When Israel rejects its Mashiach, its "tree" instantly "withers" and becomes fruitless (Matt. 22:19). Israel remains outcast and destitute until it is finally reconciled to its Mashiach in the last days at His coming (Zech. 12:10).

1.10a. Mashiach Revealed and Rejected.

Zech. 12:10, Revelation 1.

“And I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and pleas for mercy, so that, when they look on me, on him whom they have pierced, they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for an only child, and weep bitterly over him, as one weeps over a firstborn. (Zech. 12:10)

³ Then the Lord will go out and fight against those nations as when he fights on a day of battle. ⁴ On that day his feet shall stand on the Mount of Olives that lies before Jerusalem on the east, and the Mount of Olives shall be split in two from east to west by a very wide valley, so that one half of the Mount shall move northward, and the other half southward. ⁵ And you shall flee to the valley of my mountains (Zech 14:3-5a).

From the days Jesus Mashiach was revealed to Israel then promptly rejected in 33 CE, Israel has held to the notion that it needs no redemption from the Mashiach, neither for its sins nor its national safety. Dismissing the Biblical record of promises regarding the Mashiach, Israel simply conceives of Mashiach as an earthly son, born to any generation and to any family in Israel. The necessity for Mashiach to be raised up by God Himself to perpetuate the direct lineage of David is now considered archaic and wrong.

Yet, Zechariah promises a day when Israel will be disabused of such Self-deceptions as quickly as Job abandoned his fancies the moment the Lord God confronted him from the whirlwind.

So, one day, Israel will be surrounded by blood-thirsty nations armed with extinction-level weapons, seeking its total annihilation. No longer will Israel feel safe and “blessed” in its religious Self-righteousness. It will no longer imagine being favored by God and “blessed,” as it feels abandoned to its own man-made salvation.

Neither will Israel hope for Mashiach to come as a mere human being. In the End, facing the demise of its entire population, Israel will abandon its hope in a harmless human Mashiach. As it hears the approaching machinery of war, a mere scholar will not do. A wizened sage embodying the generations of Jewish talmudim will serve no purpose.

No, Israel will plead for Mashiach as its mighty Redeemer. It will count on the righteousness of Mashiach Himself to be their one hope before the Lord God. Though the entire nation is guilty and worthy of judgment, Mashiach, its Firstborn Heir, is still Yabweh Tzedekenu. Mashiach must receive His inheritance as the Firstborn Son, so Israel must survive. Jesus Mashiach must rule the nations from Jerusalem, so Jerusalem must be saved.

In the end, all Israel will turn to Jesus as its Mashiach for salvation, and it will be saved!

1.11a. Coming Kingdom of Mashiach.

Matt. 24.1-25:46

³⁷ For as were the days of Noah, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. ³⁸ For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day when Noah entered the ark, ³⁹ and they were unaware until the flood came and swept them all away, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. ⁴⁰ Then two men will be in the field; one will be taken and one left. ⁴¹ Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken and one left. ⁴² Therefore, stay awake, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. (Matt. 24:37-42).

But understand this, that in the last days there will come times of difficulty. For people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, heartless, unappeasable, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not loving good (2 Timothy 3:1-2)

There is a dangerous unawareness about the Coming of Jesus Mashiach that sedates the people of this age with a false security.

Dangerously, the flesh finds comfort in the mundane and the routine patterns of life because all it knows is its own experience. So, it pays no heed to the words of Jesus proclaiming the coming flood of tribulation which will envelope the world. So, in its carefree disregard for the rule of God which Jesus Mashiach brings at His return, the people of the world care only for their own desires and appetites, keeping themselves busy “eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage” (24:38). But, the day will come when the Lord’s people enter their shelter, “taken” before the watching eyes of the world (40).

In this way, the fleshly allure of this world, the Self-love and pride blinding the people to the lateness of the time, will be the reasons sending the world into judgment.

Certainly, the people to be engulfed by the flood would have found comfort in the blue skies they looked up at, happily “eating and drinking,” answering Noah’s words of warning with Self-assured laughter and scoffing.

So, Jesus uses the picture of the flood to describe the conditions preceding His certain return. From what we know of the further revelation in God's Word, the time of "tribulation" to come upon the whole world will be very much like this ancient flood, but it will differ in key ways as well. Let's consider how the revealed judgment of God in these Last Days compares with the flood in the times of Noah:

- Totality: When the Lord's flood of judgment hit the earth, it was a total in its reach. There was no place on earth that was spared from the Lord's judgment, as the waters of the flood covered the whole earth. Similarly, the Lord's period of testing reaches all the earth and its inhabitants. No one will be able to claim ignorance as the Lord God reveals His might power. For rebellious flesh, they will encounter the indisputable reality of God's Lordship as the Creator. In their rebellion, the peoples of the earth will even cry to the mountains, “Fall on us and hide us from the face of him who is seated on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb” (Rev. 6:16). Before the Lord God, there is no thought of resistance, as the flesh’s vain hope to oppose the Almighty God is instantly abandoned. There is no resistance, only survival at stake.

- Destruction: When the flood swept over the surface of the earth, all of earth’s inhabitants were punished with an unavoidable destruction. No matter what they did or where they fled, there was only death and destruction before them. However, when the Lord Jesus Mashiach comes to earth, the peoples of the earth are not immediately destroyed. Rather, with every group to whom the Lord is revealed, the people of the earth have the opportunity to repent and still be saved by Jesus Mashiach.
- Repentance and Salvation: Consider the events unfolding at the return of Jesus Mashiach to earth. At the first two stages, the Lord Jesus reveals the truth of His glorious presence and gives the people of earth the opportunity to repent and welcome Him as their Lord and Savior.

When He returns to Earth with His heavenly armies on the final Day of Wrath to overthrow with finality Humanity's Fleshly rebellion—its fleshly religion, its fleshly government, and its fleshly living, there will be no more opportunity to repent. At that point, each surviving person on earth will face the consequences of their actions before the Lord and His glorious throne.

1.11a. Understanding Mashiach's Coming Kingdom. Matt. 24:1-25:46

The apostles of Jesus Mashiah are no different than any of us. Leaving the Temple with their Lord Mashiach at their side, they cannot help but wonder at the crowning achievement of Israel, the splendid Temple—the symbol of the nation's desire to offer God righteous sacrifices. In contrast, the Kingdom of God—the eternal and lasting glory of God, had been coming in modest ways. As “tax collectors and prostitutes” entered the Kingdom of God as long-lost family members finding their way home after lifetimes of wandering. Moreover, the Mashiach Himself, raised up as the Son of David and the Son of God, witnessed the human spectacle of Temple worship with them. Mustn't Jesus be similarly impressed?

Naturally, Jesus instructs them that what they see is passing—in fact, the “buildings of the temple” would soon disappear as its impressive “stones” will be “thrown down” (Matt. 24:2). Rather than fixing their gaze on what is soon passing, they should instead look for the unshakeable signs of the Coming Kingdom as this passing reality of earth gives way to the eternal Kingdom.

a. Know the Signs of the Lord's Coming to End the Age. Matt. 24:1-51

To understand this comprehensive tour of the Kingdom's Coming, Jesus Mashiach first begins with the most pressing time for His disciples, the time directly preceding the events leading to the “End of the Age,” what Jesus calls “the Birth Pains.” However, He also recaps the intervening years after His death and resurrection during the Age of the Church, which ends suddenly at the great “taking” when “one will be taken and one left” (24:40) in the event which the later church would call “the Rapture.”

What is important to note here is that Jesus Mashiach starts with the “Birth Pains” for His hearers, who are the first of His servants, the twelve chosen from the tribes of Israel. This current moment preceding His death and resurrection and the “Birth Pains” to come are uniquely relevant because they involve these Jewish Servants of Jesus Mashiach.

During the Church Age, the people of Israel will be subsumed as members of the larger congregation of Jews and Gentiles to shed a temporary light of witness. However, the Church Age, with its light of witness eventually flickering and dimming, will end with finality when the Lord “takes” His people in the same way that He “took” Noah and his family before the flood broke out on the earth (Mt. 24:38).

But now, with the great “taking” of the Church, it is time for the next generation of disciples of Jesus Mashiach, primarily the disciples coming out of Israel as a Remnant to return to minister to Israel. For, the Church was temporary, and, as the Book of Revelation shows, rendered imperfect by the fleshly weakness that would eventually undermine its witness for Jesus.

Thus, starting with this Witnessing Remnant of Servants of Jesus Mashiach and then the entire Nation of Israel being re-united with Jesus as its Mashiach, Israel and its people will become the center of Jesus Mashiach’s eternal throne, established in Jerusalem to cover the entire world with its holy rule.

So, understand the Kingdom not in view of the Church's fading light but by the Eternal Light soon igniting in Israel as it fully sees and understands its Mashiach in all His glory. For, in the Last Days, Israel grows "tender" to Jesus (32).

If you are disciple of Israel, reading this after the Church's Rapture, know that your Witness of Jesus Mashiach must be holy to the Lord as the firstfruits of the eternal tree of Israel. Yes, learn from the Church, but you must know Jesus in an authentically, Torah and Tanakh-grounded way as Mashiach, learning from these first Jewish apostles of Jesus Mashiach but not adopting wholesale the message preached among the Gentiles of the "Christ." Use these Bible guides of Series 1-4 as prompts to help you pioneer your own way to know Jesus as Mashiach—a way to which the Church, wrapped in its own fleshly traditions and religious doctrines, was blinded.

The Birth Pains: Matt. 24:3-14.

Immediately following the Age of the Church and its Rapture (Rev. 2-3), a time of pain and chaos will precede like "birth pains" the "Day of the Lord" when Israel finally looks upon Jesus and recognizes Him in His saving power as its long-rejected

Mashiach, its Firstborn Son (Zech. 12:10). The world will be aware of Jesus and His promise to take His Church, which by now all eyes have witnessed. So, a host of false Christs claim, “I am the Christ” (4). As Jesus describe here and further elaborates in the book of Revelation chapter 6, these painful events take this order:

- Painful Rebukes:

- Antichrist: Israel rejected its Mashiach, so Antichrist is raised up against it (Rev. 6:2).
- Warfare: Israel sought to impose peace by its own fleshly power, apart from the Lordship of God. So, warfare breaks out (4).
- Economic Collapse: Israel has long-trusted in economic success to secure its peace, but the worldwide economy collapses (6).
- Death: Israel has celebrated its own Jewish life apart from the Redemption offered by its Mashiach, so mass death descends upon the world (8).

- Provocative Witness: Now, the Remnant which has been testifying of Jesus Mashiah through the “towns of Israel” (Matt. 10:) and the other witness of Jesus throughout the world suffer persecution and martyrdom (9).

- Powerful Salvation of Jesus Mashiach:

Finally as Israel is surrounded by the nations for its inevitable annihilation, the Lord Jesus Mashiach reveals Himself to the nation in all His saving glory, bring all Israel to repent (12).

b. Israel Witnesses to World of Jesus Mashiach for 3.5 years. Matt. 24:9-14.

Once the Lord Jesus Mashiach reveals Himself to Israel and the nation collectively recognizes Him as their long-estranged “Firstborn” Heir, the entire nation “mourns” before Him with a great weeping in full repentance (Zech. 12:11).

At once, all of its generations of testing come to a head, as Israel realizes the full extent of its fleshly rebellion and rejects its waywardness forever.

Family-by-family, Tribe-by-tribe, the people consecrate 144,000 servant-apostles to be sent out into the world, 12,000 from each tribe of Israel (Rev. 7:4).

The Temple is rebuilt one last time according to the plan given to Israel by Ezekiel, the holy prayers of Israel come before the Lord God’s throne in heaven as the “some of the incense” (Rev. 8:4), as the Nation now prays for the salvation of the world through the name of Jesus Mashiach. Now, Israel appoints two prophetic witnesses who testify to the world by signs and power of the coming Kingdom of Jesus Mashiach (Rev. 11:4). And, as the Lord promises, “the Gospel of the Kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations” before the end comes (24:14).

Thus, Israel brings the Gospel of Jesus Mashiach to the whole world, as a great worldwide harvest comes into the Kingdom (Rev. 7:8-17). For, as Israel goes forth, the Lord accompanies their witness with great signs on the earth—trumpet blasts of God’s judgment which judge and unseat Satan from his heavenly power as he is stripped of his authority and thrown to earth (8:10).

With Satan supporting his Antichrist as he takes over the earth, surrounding Israel with darkness, the beast sets up the “abomination that causes desolation” (Matt. 24:15) in the Temple and overthrows Israel after 3.5 years of peace. The two prophets are overthrown, and the world enters a period of martyrdom as the Beast forces people to worship Satan.

c. Great Tribulation as Antichrist rules earth for 3.5 years.

Jesus warns His disciples living in Israel at that time to flee “to the mountains” (24:16) when they see the prophecy of Zechariah 14 coming true, as “the city” is taken, the houses plundered, and the women defiled (2).

For 3.5 years, the earth suffers under the evil rule of the Antichrist, who forces all people to take his “mark” (Rev. 13:16) to avoid persecution and to hold on to their earthly wealth and possessions. So, all people on earth must choose whom they worship: God or Satan? And, whom they serve as Lord: Jesus Mashiach or the Antichrist?

In the end, Jesus Mashiach returns with the armies of heaven to retake the Earth and establish the Kingdom of God, and “all the tribes of earth will mourn” as the sight of “the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory” (24:30).

In His great mercy, even those who received the Mark of the Beast yet were still merciful to His persecuted saints will be spared (Matt. 25:40).

b. Prepare for the Coming of the Lord Jesus Mashiach: Readiness and Faithfulness. Matt. 25:1-30.

The Lord Jesus Mashiach reminds His people that they must show the reality of their relationship with Him before His certain coming. That is, the faith of the saints is shown to be real through action rather than mere words.

We have seen that the fleshly hypocrisy of Israel's leaders prompted them to honor God superficially with their words but refused His Lordship by not acting on His words.

In this way, the Lord Jesus Mashiach expects His servants to show their devotion to Him through their actions:

- Sacrifice reveals Willing Hearts of Honor. (25:1-13). Because the Mashiach is God's Son and designated Heir, the "bridegroom" of the Kingdom, He rightly expects His people to show Him the honor due His place in the Kingdom. So, in the parable of the ten virgins, the actions of the virgins before the Bridegroom's arrival reveal the willingness of their hearts to honor Him even before they meet Him. So, even the small act of bringing along “oil” for their lamps reveals their hearts. The willingness to make such a trifling sacrifice, to suffer the small inconvenience of preparing beforehand, allows them to be ready at His unexpected arrival. Today, those who are too focused on their own needs and lives to give a thought or suffer the slightest inconvenience for the Lord reveals their hearts toward Him.

- Service reveals Loyal Hearts of Responsibility. The relationship between Jesus and His disciples is to begin with a Lord- Servant relationship. If His disciples believe that He has the right to be the “Lord of Heaven and Earth,” then He has the right to be their Lord as well. For, Jesus Mashiach is appointed by God as the Lord of Lords, and He will have the obedience of the people either by their own choice or by the force of His power. Thus, Jesus gives us the opportunity to serve Him willingly, to show ourselves responsible to Him as our Lord right now. So, if the disciples of Jesus Mashiach show their loyalty to Him by dethroning their own Self-Rule to humbly serve Him now, by actions and not just words (like the hypocrites), He rewards their loyalty with greater responsibilities in the Kingdom.

Thus, you who recognize Jesus Mashiach as your Lord and Redeemer, prove your Willingness and Loyalty even now, before His coming Rule, that you might take your position with Him in glory and power.

c. The Judgment Seat of Jesus Mashiach.
Matt. 25:31-46.

For the first time in all of human history, Jesus Mashiach begins His rule upon His “glorious throne” (31). Until this point, He has given people the opportunity to honor Him willingly, by faith. Normally, emboldened by their Self-deceptively rebellious natures of flesh, people have innately resisted or denied Jesus, not seeing any threat or consequence to their rebellion.

However, now, the Lord Jesus begins His total rule to exercise His Lordship and pay back to people what their actions deserve.

Those who have set themselves against Him receive the horrible sentence of their action

Notably, for this last group of people before the glorious rule of the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth, their fates depend on how they treated the Lord's own people. Remember, under the terrible rule of the Antichrist, the Lord's "brethren" born into the Kingdom of God were the earth's outcasts—persecuted, homeless, and hated, they were hunted on earth with anyone providing aid falling under the same dire threat.

So, for the Righteous of the earth who risked their own safety for the sake of Mashiach's family members, these Righteous are now rewarded with grace and life in the new world of God's Kingdom. But, those who loved their own lives first and rebuffed the Lord's needy brethren, these are punished with immediate banishment into the fires of judgment.

In all of Scriptures, these wretched enemies of Jesus Mashiach are thrown "alive" into the hellfire, with their souls intact.

1.11a. The Coming Kingdom of Mashiach.

Then I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse! The one sitting on it is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he judges and makes war. ¹² His eyes are like a flame of fire, and on his head are many diadems, and he has a name written that no one knows but himself. ¹³ He is clothed in a robe dipped in blood, and the name by which he is called is The Word of God. And the armies of heaven, arrayed in fine linen, white and pure, were following him on white horses. ¹⁵ From his mouth comes a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations, and he will rule them with a rod of iron. He will tread the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God the Almighty. ¹⁶ On his robe and on his thigh he has a name written, King of kings and Lord of lords. Revelation 19:11-16

When the Lord Jesus Mashiach comes in His full heavenly glory, He establishes the Kingdom of God by the power of His person! Revealing Himself in His perfected glory, Jesus

Mashiach also dispels like shadows to light the fleshly hiding places by which men justified their idolatry and rebellion against the Lord God!

Jesus Mashiach alone is the Faithful and True Witness of God, testifying of His exclusive right to bring righteousness to the Kingdom's sons by His blood-stained garments as the Lamb of God, Yahweh Tzedekenu who is the Lord our righteousness. Thus, the idolatrous woman Jezebel, the epitome of fleshly religion and its Self-justifying abominations are cast aside and forgotten.

Jesus Mashiach alone is the King of kings and the Lord of lords, whose eyes flash the very flames of God's holy judgment and whose head is crowned with every authority and right to rule. This Lord of Hosts comes with the might of His mighty armies, the very hosts of heaven in their families and ranks, filling the skies with irresistible force yet subject to His every command. With a simple command, He disarms Antichrist and silences His boasts forever.

If you are undecided in where you stand relative to Earth's coming Lord and King, subject yourself now to your Rightful Lord Mashiach to secure for yourself a place in His Kingdom. For, once the flood waters come, who knows where you will be and for how long you will last?

1.12. Crucified Redeemer and Resurrected Lord. Matt. 26:1-28:20

Then he said to them, “My soul is very sorrowful, even to death; remain here, and watch with me.” And going a little farther he fell on his face and prayed, saying, “My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as you will.” Matt. 26:38-39

²¹ For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. 2 Cor. 5:21

When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead. But he laid his right hand on me, saying, “Fear not, I am the first and the last, ¹⁸ and the living one. I died, and behold I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of Death and Hades. Rev. 1:17-18

To understand the great sacrifice of Jesus Mashiaich on the cross and why it is the pivot-point of history, it is necessary to start at the beginning to understand the very nature of God’s creature “man.” When the Lord God made our first parent Adam, he gave him bodily life of “earth” but then breathed directly into him the “breath of life” so that Adam was a “living soul” with an earthly life of the flesh and a heavenly, spiritual life of the Spirit.

Importantly, the treasure of God’s eternal life was contained in the fragile container of the flesh—a mere biological vessel which was subject to the limitations, pains, and even finality of this material world. In the flesh, we were only spiritually alive in relation to God as our family Lord.

Because Adam was a creature of flesh, subject to pain and death, God warned Him that to sin, to seek life apart from God as a rebel, would lead to His death—the death first of his spiritual life with God and then his bodily death (Gen. 2:17). So, when Adam sinned by breaking God’s command “not to eat,” he died spiritually, being separated from God and uncovered of life as mere naked flesh (Gen. 3:7).

Like Adam, Jesus Mashiach was born in weak flesh so that, in the weakness of His fleshly body, He also would be vulnerable to pain, weakness, and death.

Although our first parents, Adam and Eve, were alive both in fleshly bodies and God's spiritual life until they sinned. Then, they became dead in the flesh and cut off from the spiritual life of God. Since their fall into sin, we all, their generations of the human family, we have only known dead flesh bereft of the spiritual life of God. We are all “dead in our transgressions and sins” (Eph. 2:1) and living in the land of “darkness” in the “shadow of death” (Is. 6:2).

But, when Jesus Mashiach was born both in the flesh but also by the Spirit of God, he was again given, like our first parents, both a fleshly body and a spiritual life. Importantly, this bodily vessel in fleshly weakness would not live forever, being subject to death (Gen. 6:3), yet it contained the treasure of God's spiritual life.

So, living a sinless life, Jesus Mashiach on the cross took on all his human family's sin onto himself, becoming the embodiment of Sin (2 Cor. 5:21) to give His life as an “atonement” for sins, paying the “ransom” for all of our forgiveness.

When Jesus Mashiach became “sin” itself, He also died spiritually—being severed in His oneness with the Father so that He suffers sin's penalty for the whole family—the utter desolation of spiritual death. Of all creation's great mysteries, the deepest of all pains, the Son of God died to the Father. Even in glory, Mashiach can say: “I died, and I am alive forevermore” (Rev. 1:8)—dying not just in the flesh, but dying a spiritual death to God His Father.

How could the Son of God willingly agree to suffer this soul death, being separated from the Father with whom He shared a “oneness” from the beginning? Though Jesus loves and lays His life down for us, His people, we are not the reason Jesus was willing to be sundered from His God. In fact, He asked the Father to “let this cup pass” from him (26:39). No, the followers of the Lord Jesus are not more precious to Him than His life with the Father. Rather, it was the Father's will alone, which commanded Jesus Mashiach to redeem His family home by His shed blood on the cross, it was this love for the Father which moved the Lord Mashiach to lay down His soul for the Father and saying: “Not as I will, but as you will” (Matt. 26:39).

12. Crucified Redeemer and Resurrected Lord. Matt. 26:1-28:20

Moreover, the Lord declares to you that the Lord will make you (David) a house. When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring (Seed- zera) after you, who shall come from your body, and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. I will be to him a father, and he shall be to me a son. When he commits iniquity, I will discipline him with the rod of men, with the stripes of the sons of men (2 Sam. 7:12-14).

When Jews believe that God can raise up Mashiach from any person and at any time from Israel's generations, they reveal how little they understand of God's actual promise to David of who Mashiach was to be and His unique mission.

Actually, we have already seen in the encounters of Jesus with the Jewish leadership how there can be a willful ignorance of Mashiach's claims, especially when he threatens to disrupt the fleshly influence and control the leader of Israel have gathered to themselves.

But, in the praises of Jerusalem's children, we understand the full promise of Mashiach to "save us"!

For, as we see the culmination of the life of Jesus as Mashiach, only the person of Mashiach can accomplish the great salvation which the Lord God had promised to His friend David. For Israel to truly be safe—they must "dwell in their own place" forever, ruled by an eternal throne (10). However, Israel's greatest threat is not external but its own sin, which has led to both Israel and Judah's exile. Despite the nation's confidence in its own Self-righteousness due to its Torah-observant piety, God views its "righteous deeds" as "polluted garments" (Is. 64:6), as incapable of covering Israel's "naked flesh" as were the fig leaves of Adam and Eve (Gen. 3:7).

Whereas Israel may not see its clear need for Mashiach nor His redemption, God promises David that it is only this "Seed" of David whom He will "raise up" as the only Redeemer to save Israel:

- Rest at Home: Like the rest of the human family, the sin of Adam and Eve had orphaned all the families of the earth into a hostile and deadly world, separated from the blessing of God and vulnerable to the predatory nations, as it was enslaved in the house of Egypt. So, Mashiach gathers a "household" bringing together the earthly sons of David (11) into the eternal safety of belonging to God as the sons of the Most High in His house forever (13). So, only Jesus Mashiach, raised up by God according to the laws of geullah and yibbum, would be the Firstborn and Heir, having the right to build a blessed House for David and an eternal House for God, being both the Son of David (12) and the Son of God (14).

- Righteous Rule: Likewise, inheriting from His fathers the realm of earth, centered in its capital of Jerusalem, and all of heaven, as promised to the Lord's "Anointed" who is both "the Son of God" and "the Son of David" (Psalm 2:7-8 and Psalm 8:4-6). Ruling earth with the power of heaven, this "Anointed Elohim" (Ps. 45:6-7) rules on David's throne in "righteousness" for the good and protection of His people, Israel, to bring God's knowledge and peace to cover the whole earth (Is. 11:6-9).
- Redeemed People: Again, all these great promises are worthless if the sins of the people and their fleshly rebellion and insistence on Self-Justification would bring upon them God's wrath to drive them out of their promised inheritance as befell them first at the hands of the Assyrians and then the Babylonians. So, the people need a spiritual redeemer who could “atone” and ransom their fleshly sin (Dan. 9:24) but also give to them an eternal, irrevocable righteousness as Yahweh Tzedekenu (Jer. 23:6), for by themselves, in Tzedekenu, Israel was unclean in their “polluted garments” (Is. 64:6).

Thus, only Jesus as Mashiach can Redeem His people of their sins to give them an everlasting righteousness. For, a merely human Mashiach, saddled with the same fallen flesh, would never be able to “ransom” his own, much less, another’s life (Psalm 49:7), for the fleshly life dies so it can not provide a life “forever.” But, Jesus Mashiach was begotten of “God” as the “Son of God” (Psalm 2:7 and 2 Sam. 7:14), whose life as “the Lord their God” (Jer. 30:9) was sufficient to bear the sins of all people. Yet, how can such a Son of God, an eternal one, experience the suffering and death of mere human flesh? Jesus Mashiach was “raised up” in the flesh as the Seed of David (2 Sam. 7:12), so he could be “disciplined” for iniquity (7:14), taking on not just the punishment but the very culpability of His people—as He himself sinned. Only Jesus Mashiach, as both the Son of Man (David) and the Son of God could “atone” for the iniquity of His people (Dan. 9:24) to them the very righteous life of God by His redemption as Yahweh Tzedekenu (Jer. 23:6).

Only Jesus Mashiach could fulfill the mission of Mashiach to gather a house of Heaven and Earth, by Redeeming a People as the Son of God and the Son of David, which itself would be the eternal House to establish His eternal throne and Kingdom in Jerusalem over the entire earth.

So, in God’s designated time—483 years after the decree of Artaxerxes to restore Jerusalem and its people to repentance—in the year 33 CE, Jesus Mashiach was “cut off” as Daniel had predicted, that he might “atone for the iniquity” of His people and bring an “everlasting righteousness” to the sons of His house as their Yahweh Tzedekenu (Jer. 23:6).

a. Betrayed and Arrested: Jesus Mashiach testifies of the Kingdom. Matt. 26:1-75.

⁶³ But Jesus remained silent. And the high priest said to him, “I adjure you by the living God, tell us if you are the Christ, the Son of God.” ⁶⁴ Jesus said to him, “You have said so. But I tell you, from now on you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of Power and coming on the clouds of heaven.” ⁶⁵ Then the high priest tore his robes and said, “He has uttered blasphemy. What further witnesses do we need? You have now heard his blasphemy. Matt. 26:62-65.

We have already seen that only Jesus can be the Mashiach to truly save Israel and the families of the earth. Only Jesus Mashiach who is both the Son of God and the Son of David can bring together God and Man— making the children acceptable to God by gaining the forgiveness of their sin guilt by atoning for their iniquities and by making them the righteousness of God through His redemption. But, it is the Mashiach's dual paternity as the Son of God and the Son of Man which Israel's teachers see as "blasphemy" (Matt. 27:65). Yet, it was God's clear revelation that Mashiach must be both in order for Him to redeem His Family. Again, we see how preposterous the fleshly piety of men is compared to the reality of God's promise. Imagine mere men, who have long since in the veracity of death realized their error and are likely terrified at their own outrageous accusations, accused the Son of God of blasphemy, when the very Word of God says that "the Son of Man," as the Heir of Creation (Ps. 8:6), would come with the "clouds of heaven" (Dan. 7:13). Their misplaced indignation says much about how fleshly Self- importance, when it is even confronted with the glory of the Lord God (Jer. 30:9) Himself, will accuse this Lord of blasphemy.

b. Crucified and Buried: Jesus Mashiach bears our iniquity and pays ransom. Matt. 27:1-66.

⁴⁶ And about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, “Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?” that is, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” (Matt. 27:46)

There are two pernicious misunderstandings we can take away from the events of the cross. But first, let's establish the real cost and the true horror of the cross. The cross was terrifying not simply for the pain it inflicted nor the physical death it inflicted. Rather, the true horror of the cross is that God the Father was forced to sunder His oneness with God the Son—that the One God (Deut. 6:4), Yahweh Elohenu, Yahweh echad—the Lord our God as One, experienced the spiritual death which cleaved God from God. If for us as created human beings such separation is truly hell, it is unimaginable to consider the horror of the Son's words, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachtani?" My God, My God, why have you forsaken me? Thus, we must never consider either of these errors:

- Idolatrous Sacrifice: That Jesus Mashiach went to the cross because of His great love for humanity. Such thinking makes Jesus guilty of idolatry, for he valued human life higher than His eternal oneness with the Father, His God. Rather, Jesus preferred to let "pass" this cup of death but only went to the cross to obey His Father! (26:39).
- Fearing Death/ Saving His Life: Because Jesus was only truly terrified of the sin-death to be separated from His Father, he was not reluctant to drink this cup of sacrifice because He feared for His own life. Rather, He gladly suffered pain and willingly laid down His life for the sake of His people. This Self-sacrificing nature of the Son's righteousness as the Shepherd of God's Household proves the kind of righteous ruler this Anointed Son will be on the throne of David! Ruling not for His sake but for the good of His people!

c. Resurrected and Exalted: Jesus Mashiach perfected as Lord of All. Matt. 28:1-20.

And Jesus came and said to them, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and disciple all nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit (Matt. 28:18-19)

Thus, when Jesus suffers death on the cross as His Household's rightful Redeemer, as its Firstborn Son, He rises in glory to receive all that His sacrifice has reaped.

- The highest place of Lordship as the Heir of all the Heavens and the Earth (18). Humanity had lost its inheritance of the “heavens and the earth” to spiritual death.

Now that Jesus has conquered sin and its consequent death, He wins back humanity's dominion.

- By conquering sin and death, the Mashiach has the right to give New Life to any who would come to Him for redemption, thus baptizing—that is, rebirthing “sons” into the Family name of the Father, the Son, and the Spirit, into God's Household (19).

In this way, Jesus Mashiach redeems sons for God's eternal household of the “heavens and the earth” to establish His eternal throne over His Kingdom forever!

12. Resurrected Lord and Life in the Kingdom.

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. ¹⁶ For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. ¹⁷ And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. ¹⁸ And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent. ¹⁹ For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, ²⁰ and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

Jesus Mashiach is both the Heir of this current creation, the “Firstborn” of all in “heaven” and on “earth” (Col. 1:15) and the “Firstborn” and Heir of the new and coming resurrected reality, one which is untouched by the darkness of spiritual death.

Whereas the Son of God inherits all things in the “heavens and the earth” by His power as Creator, “holding all things together” in this present reality (17) by His power. Jesus Mashiach also inherits all things in the new reality, for He is the “Firstborn of the dead”—the first to be freed of the death-cycle bringing the first creation and all humanity to its inevitable end.

For, by the cross of His sufferings, this Son of Man and the Son of God became the darkness of sin in His body to pay its ransom for the sons of the Kingdom, forever freeing them and all creation from this dark infection to sin and death. Thus, Jesus Mashiach is preeminent because in Himself He reconciles all things to God that as “the living one” he might establish a forever Kingdom of life untouched by death! Go, then, disciples of Jesus Mashiach, for you are to disciple the nations to populate Kingdom with sons!

For, as sons of the Most High, being sons of the Kingdom, Jesus Mashiach resurrects us into spiritual and eternal bodies to contain this resurrected life! If Adam's body was weak and destined for death in the flesh, the spiritual body of Jesus Mashiach Himself, resurrected in life and the glories of the Kingdom. So, as we bore the image of the earthly man in dying flesh, we will soon bear the image of the heavenly man, our Lord Jesus Mashiach. Living in glorious bodies to expect only life forever. To know the Father forever. So, disciple the nations for we are called into this eternal Kingdom to the Lord Jesus Mashiach's perfected glory as Redeemer, the reconciler of all things in heaven and earth!